

Mandy Kuxhausen

Vice President, Chief Operations Officer

Mandy's extensive experience with the SBA spans over 16 years and counting. Over the course of her career, Mandy's comprehensive background in all facets of the SBA process, origination, structuring, processing, closing and credit underwriting gives her a diverse array of capabilities to pull from to get a transaction funded. She has held positions ranging from Loan Packager, Loan Closer, Credit Underwriter, Loan Committee Member and presently Business Development Officer.

She's a current member of the National Association of Government Guaranteed Lenders (NAGGL), a former member of the National Association of Development Companies (NADCO) and served on a local Certified Development Company's (CDC) loan review committee.

Mandy and her husband currently reside in Denver, CO with their two Rhodesian Ridgeback dogs and a cat. She is an avid gardener and enjoys spending most of her time outside year round in the Colorado sun skiing, hiking with her dogs and the occasional round of golf.

Mandy's subject-matter expertise paired with her progressive approach makes Mandy a go-to person for many of T-Bank's clients looking to secure financing opportunities with the Small Business Administration. T Bank is a nationally chartered bank headquartered in Dallas, Texas, doing business nationwide with SBA offices across the country from Florida to Oregon.
