

Amanda Peterson

Amanda Peterson, Head Compliance & Regulatory Affairs, has been involved in SBA Lending for 14 years, 10 of which have been spent at Colorado Lending Source. She has experience in almost every level of a SBA loan cycle from origination to charge off as well as her current role in SBA loan program compliance and regulation. She participates on national as well as local small business lending committees and organizations and is excited to see small business lending in Colorado grow. She is a Colorado native and lives in Denver with her husband, daughter and two dogs.