

McKenna Weiks, Vice President Business Development, CORPSMART™

McKenna Weiks is the Vice President of Business Development at CORPSMART, a records research, filing and corporate compliance company. CORPSMART partners with lenders, law firms and LSP's to deliver comprehensive UCC lien searching, filing and verification services.

She plays a central role in leading the sales and marketing teams, building strategic relationships and creating solutions to meet each client's unique closing and servicing needs.

McKenna has spent the past decade working in the industry and has partnered with the America West Conference to support ongoing educational initiatives. In her spare time, she will be found traveling the world, eating boneless spicy chicken wings and sampling tequila.

McKenna holds a BA in Strategic Communications and Marketing from the University of Denver.
