Significant Revelation

Lacking Nothing

Those Days

Most of us have had days where we look in the mirror and can't see what God sees (a.k.a. the TRUTH). Days where the demands of the world to be MORE-something, or LIKE-something, or LESS-something scream louder than the voice of the one who actually made us.

The side-effects of those days (uncertainty, insecurity, fear), which usually start as mornings, can affect our entire day,

IF we choose to feed on the lie and wear, what I now call, "Jezebel's glasses;" it's downhill from there.

Am I the only one who's been on this demonic, snowballing ride?

Knitted

A few years ago, I heard a beautiful explanation of the "knitting" described in Psalms 139:

Psalm 139:13-15

"For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth."

The person explained that knitting takes TIME. That it's something intricate, a process. To know that's the kind of care, time, and attention-to-detail God the Father/Creator put into making us... wow!

I believe that one key in pulling down the lie is to ultimately understand your worth does not stem from what is external, visible, or fleeting. Should we put our best foot forward? YES, we are VALUABLE! Does that involving fitting-in, compromising, comparing, and being someone other than who we were created to be? NO!

So Envy...

One thing I learned is that jealousy is deceptive. Everyone has things they are walking through. And I promise, while the the enemy is making the other person's life seem so appealing and desirable, you wouldn't want to walk through what they have/are walking through. Perfection is a lie; perfect lives don't exist.

When we truly understand what God has invested in us and the extravagant plans He has for our OWN LIVES, competition and envy will find no place in us. When these things surface in our hearts, they are express-mailed invitations to deeper self-discovery. Invitations from the Throne Room to receive clarity of identity, worth, and purpose.

Renewing Our Minds

Pulling down strongholds (wrong thinking patterns) is not always easy, but it is possible as we renew our minds to TRUTH versus sight, TRUTH versus what's widely accepted, TRUTH versus our current emotions, GOD'S TRUTH versus what we've always THOUGHT was true.

Can we believe what Christ calls out to His Bride in Song of Solomon?

Song of Songs 4:7

"Every part of you is so beautiful, my darling. Perfect is your beauty, without flaw within."

Can we believe that beauty is for us, and that we are already basking in it? That we've obtained it in God's eyes through Christ and are accepted and loved? That it doesn't have to be grasped or strived for, just received?

The Little Girls to Come

These are real issues, mindsets that are easily and passively passed down to the little girls coming behind us, if not taken captive. So, they MUST fall. They must bow down to the truth of God's Word. Their destructive, breath-stealing, ties must be cut because generations are depending on it.

We're able to overcome because the ultimate victory has already been won for us. The world and its lies have been conquered.

1 John 5:4

"For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith."

Let's invite this victory to transform us. To let truth ring in our ears today (and continually after) and consume your MINDS until it influences the PERCEPTION of our REFLECTION and overtakes GENERATIONS to follow:

Fearfully made. Marvelously created.
Sculptured by the hands of the Perfect Creator.
LACKING NOTHING!

Prayer

Lord, I believe You care deeply about us and how we perceive ourselves. I pray every stronghold of the enemy would be uprooted in our lives, even those implanted long ago. May rejection and self-rejection have no place in us. May we believe YOUR truths, laying aside the pressures and lies of the world. Heal our wounds. Help us to see ourselves the way You see us.

These are real issues, mindsets that are easily and passively passed down to the little girls coming behind us...

Romans 12:2

"Do not be conformed to this world (this age), [fashioned after and adapted to its external, superficial customs], but be transformed (changed) by the [entire] renewal of your mind [by its new ideals and its new attitude], so that you may prove [for yourselves] what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God, even the thing which is good and acceptable and perfect [in His sight for you]."

Proverbs 31:30

"Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised."

Philippians 3:3

"For we [Christians] are the true circumcision, who worship God in spirit and by the Spirit of God and exult and glory and pride ourselves in Jesus Christ, and put no confidence or dependence [on what we are] in the flesh and on outward privileges and physical advantages and external appearances—"

Matthew 10:29-31

*“Are not two little sparrows sold for a penny?
And yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's leave (consent) and notice.
But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, then; you are of more value than many sparrows.”*

Lord, Why Me?

MAMA Q

Lord, why me?

Why did you choose me to love unconditionally?

I'm not worthy of the love you have given me.

I have cheated on you as an adulterer replacing you with things.

But still you chose me.

I have lied which you said is an abomination
to you,

Yet you still chose me.

I have turned my back to you and on you,
But you still chose me.

I told you I hate you, and I thought I meant it,
You responded, “I love you,”

You chose me.

You warned me telling me he won't/can't love
you and will hurt you,

I chose him.

You chose me!

I tried to kill myself,

You sent angels all night to keep me from falling into a deep sleep and to minister to me,
Proving your love for me and my purpose...

You chose me!

When I didn't know who I was to you,

You kept courting and wooing me.

You chose me.

My worth was in my titles at home, school,
and work; they defined me, who I was.

You allowed me to lose it all to redefine me.

You chose me!

When I thought my body was my answer to love,

You intervened with a Father's love and taught me true love,

You chose me.

I knew you; I knew your word. I saw your hand and still I chose what pleased me.

You never condemned me,

You never shamed me,

You simply kept loving me,

You Chose Me!

When I let my sin separate me from you,

You simply replied, “I stand at the door and knock. You have heard the knock, so open the door.

I want to come and dine with you and you with me.

There's nothing that has or can separate you from my love.”

You chose me over, and over, and over again.

But why?

Why would you keep choosing me even when I wouldn't choose you?

When I did not think I was worthy enough or was so far in my mess/myself I couldn't choose you?

Answer

"Why wouldn't I choose you?"

Did I not tell you my love is a gift and there's nothing you can do to stop my love for you?

I knew you before the foundations of the earth were lain. I knitted you together in your mother's womb and gave you hope and a future before you were even born. We were in relationship prior to your existence in that physical body. I did choose you. It was not an accident; you were not an accident.

Don't you remember in 2012, I told you that I chose you as my mouthpiece.

I declare the end from the beginning and things that are not yet done. I am Omniscient, I know ALL things and there is no-thing I had not already given you grace for. I don't see like men, but I see your heart and it looks like mine. You are my image! You didn't see it, but I knew you would come to see things my way.

What kind of Father would I be if I chose to not love you like I loved my son that I gave specifically for you knowing who you were and the choices you would make? That would make me a liar, but I am not a man I am TRUTH, and I cannot lie. I love you and will love you despite you. I know you are not perfect. Matter of fact, I gave you free will knowing that you may never choose me, that's how much I love you. It's your choice and has always been and still is your choice. And this is why you cannot understand why I love you regardless of you. There is no way you can ever pay me back nor will you ever be able to "earn" my love, grace, mercy. It is not possible!

Yet you can choose to accept my love for you.

You can accept that I will never leave you nor forsake you.

You can accept that honestly you will never be "good" enough, but you are by my grace and favor "more than enough!"

There is nothing you can do to earn what I give freely, and you have been adopted into my family with no strings attached.

You ARE MY BELOVED and that's why I chose you!!

Now go out with your people and tell them about the love I have given you. You were once broken just like them. Go be my mouthpiece and I will give them beauty for their ashes too."

Your True Love,

My Beloved,

Your Father!

Lord's Prayer

BILL VAUGHN

God desires a personal relationship with His followers. He sent us Jesus to be our go-between as we pray, and many of His followers haven't been taught how to communicate with God. It doesn't have to be formal and structured with repetitive and memorized prayers. Jesus gave us the following outline as He taught His disciples:

The Model Prayer

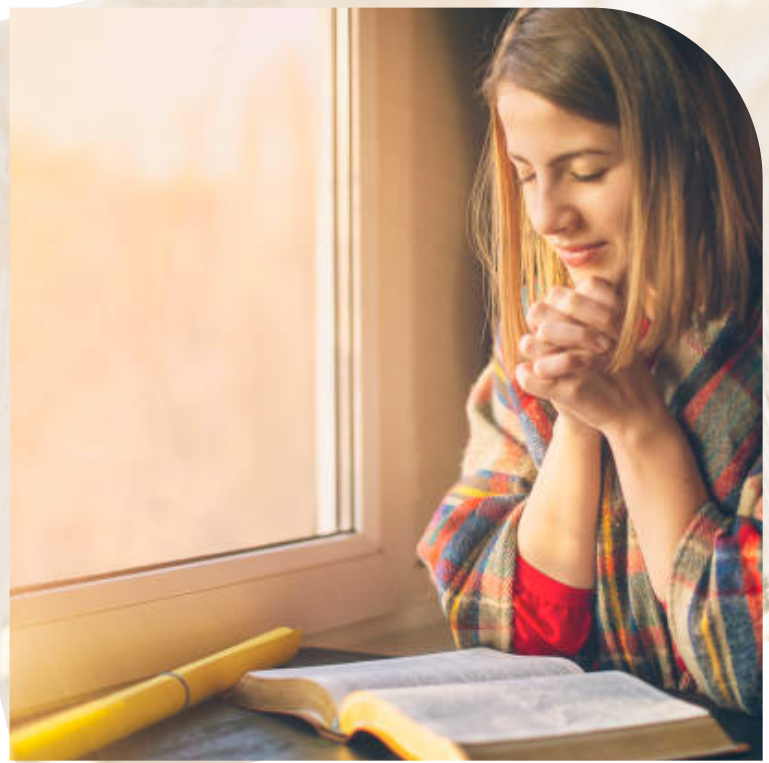

Matthew 6:5-15

“And when you pray, you shall not be like the [b]hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. But you, when you pray, go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you [c]openly. And when you pray, do not use vain repetitions as the heathen do. For they think that they will be heard for their many words.

Therefore, do not be like them. For your Father knows the things you have need of before you ask Him. In this manner, therefore, pray:

*Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.*

[d]For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

Prayer in public can be a very powerful thing! Calling upon the word and promises of God out loud can bring profound results, but God longs for us to have a personal and intimate relationship of prayer with Him. The Lord's Prayer was spoken to the disciples by Jesus. It is a beautiful and powerful prayer, but it is actually an outline of how God would like for us to communicate with him. Jesus spoke that we are to find a private place to pray, and we are to communicate with Him without using repetitive prayers. Instead, He has given us the Lord's Prayer as an outline to follow:

Our Father in Heaven, Hallowed be Your Name.

First, we are to start our time of prayer with PRAISE. God desires our gratitude for who He is in our lives! He is our Creator, Provider, Healer, Deliverer, and so much more! When we start our prayer time like this, it is pleasing to Him, and it invites His presence into our prayer room.

Your Kingdom Come. Your Will be Done, on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Next, we are to pray for God's will to be done in our lives. God has a perfect plan for our lives, and as His followers we are members of His heavenly kingdom. He has plans for our lives, but it is up to us as followers of Jesus to ask Him what they are and to obey His leadings and commands from the bible. We need to ask that He intervene on our behalf so that His plans for our lives will be fulfilled.

Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread.

The next step in our prayer time is to ask God to provide for our daily needs. These are not limited to food! Our daily bread can be any of our physical, financial, or spiritual needs. God's desire is for us to acknowledge Him in prayer as we thank Him for providing for us and ask for our daily needs.

And Forgive Us Our Debts, as we Forgive Our Debtors.

Forgiveness is also a very important part of our prayer time. Jesus said that we must forgive our debtors (trespassers) so that we may be forgiven. If we are holding grudges and bitter toward others, we are blocking God's ability to forgive us and bring us peace of mind.

And Do Not Lead Us into Temptation, but Deliver us From the Evil One.

Next, we are to ask that God help us to avoid temptation, and to protect us when temptation comes looking for us. Many times, we are tempted to sin in some way long before we actually do it. Praying for God's help can prevent us from doing it.

For Yours is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory Forever. Amen.

When closing our prayer, we are to pray like we did in the beginning! We are to praise God for who He is, pray that His kingdom be implemented in our lives, and thank Him for His Glory.

As we pray using God's outline, the Lord's Prayer, we will always see results. Take some time afterwards to listen for God's voice or to see if He is giving you a vision or plan for your future.

He may surprise you with something amazing!

If we are holding grudges and bitter toward others, we are blocking God's ability to forgive us and bring us peace of mind.

Revelation from God about Isaiah 54:17

MAMA VEE

As I tossed and turned in the bed, trying to rest while dealing with symptoms of Covid 19, I was awoken suddenly by hearing: “No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment THOU SHALT CONDEMN. I CAN’T CONDEMN IT FOR YOU, YOU HAVE TO DO IT.”

It was the Lord speaking loudly in my ear. I rose out of my slumber because I had heard and quoted Isaiah 54:17 many of times, but for some reason, this time felt like it was the first time I’d ever heard it. In some ways, it was because the Lord has never said it to me to get me to PAY ATTENTION.

A spiritual light bulb went off, and I said to the Lord, “I have to condemn it.”

He said, “Exactly.” He continued to explain to me saying, “I put in the scriptures that you have the power of DEATH AND LIFE in your tongue. That is where you get the power to condemn.”

We must speak death first to what is disrespecting our spiritual atmosphere, and then life to what the Holy Spirit says to speak life to. Whether it is finances, marriage, jobs, home life, children, etc. You must kill with your words by condemning it first, then speak life to what it shall be.

People misquote this scripture all the time and wonder why nothing changes. I am here to share that it is because you are operating out of the order the Lord requires. You must speak death first and then life, just like we are able to live because Christ died first.

The last thing the Lord said to me was, “So what you gotta say?”

I am asking you to answer this question. Answer it by condemning every tongue that rises up against you.

Be blessed!

Do You See Your Challenges as Growth Opportunities?

PASTOR NOE

I saw a sign that said something like: “be nice to everybody because everybody is going through some type of challenge.”

Some of these challenges can be big, some small, some quick, some long, some are VERY difficult, and others are so easy we don’t even realize they are tests.

This is what life is in large part - as there is a season for all things (Ecc 3:1-8). Life is about ups, downs, and transitions.

...as our entire being fights with and hates going through these, because we like our comforts. I mean, I do, and I'm guessing you do too. I feel I'm pretty domesticated at this point. We like to feel good - however we define that - whether that's good for righteousness' sake, OR good for the enemy's sake - in carnal ways.

We have to realize that it's the tests in our lives that have affected and defined us in large part - for good or bad. Even personally, as each of us knows, there is the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat at the end of our challenges.

Job 7:17-18

“What is man, that you make so much of him, and that you set your heart on him, visit him every morning and test him every moment?”

But it's the difficult tests that really cause us to question verses such as:

James 1:2-4

“Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance. And let endurance have a perfect work, so that you be perfect and complete, lacking in naught.”

Romans 5:3-4

“Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope”

We all know that at some point there will be more tests in our life. So, I think it best if we can use these tests to our best benefit. This means that we have to look at the bigger picture by asking ourselves, “What is Yah's/God's purpose for this challenge? How is He trying to grow me?”

Our challenges are meant to teach us something OR perhaps even re-test us to see if we still believe or have maintained the same positiveness. Yah/God doesn't just allow us to suffer without being able to redeem that time (Gen 50:20). In one way or another, our challenges will bring Him esteem/glory.

Even as you parents know, in order for your children to grow up healthy and for their own good, you cannot live their lives for them. If you coddle them or baby them too much, they may turn out to be spoiled or grow up with a sense of entitlement. If you don't parent them enough, they will have another set of problems - which as an example can come in the form of addictions, fear, rejection, etc.

But we must understand that our Heavenly Father knows how to guide us through our challenges. Even if we did it wrong way back when, He can still make it much better for us if we allow Him to do that - to learn from the past and even heal that past. Many people think they are just damaged goods, but our Heavenly Father doesn't think that about His children. That's people seeing from their perspective.

The challenges that we have in this life are only momentary (2 Cor 4:17) even though they seem like they'll last forever sometimes. Yahweh's perspective is on your eternal life.

If we handle our challenges by the manner He prescribes in His Word, the Bible, then

Even if our reward isn't immediate, we have to know that Yah/God is working things out for our good...

He will see that He can trust us and reward us as He sees fit (Gal 6:9).

We must learn how to get Yah's/God's perspective on our challenges, friendships, life choices, etc. because otherwise it's like a child wandering around in life just asking for trouble. Parents know if their child doesn't learn how to overcome a particular challenge their life will be that much harder - for example, walking, talking, reading.

But as we get older our challenges are meant to draw us close to Our Father so that He can teach us to be more like Yeshua/Jesus.

1 Peter 1:7

“in order that the proving of your belief – much more precious than gold that perishes, and proven by fire – might be found to result in praise and respect and esteem at the revelation of יהושע Messiah,”

Even if our reward isn't immediate, we have to know that Yah/God is working things out for our good (Rom 8:28) and that He wants to share His Esteem & Glory with us (Rev 22:12) after our works have been tested (1 Co 3:13-15).

When we read Ecclesiastes, we see Solomon was focused on a great many things intellectually. Towards the end, he finally has this to say after saying that life is full of vanities or pride in a person's accomplishments or worldly pursuits:

Ecclesiastes 12:12-13

“My son, beware of anything beyond these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh. The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.”

The biblical faith and character that you are developing and using now are a much better retirement plan than a Roth IRA or a 401.

Not that those are bad, but they aren't eternal (Mat 6:19-21). We need to focus on the things above (Col 3:2).

I pray that helped you in some way.

Noe@WalkwithYah

Maybe your miracle could be next

Dear Mama

Q: There is a guy who wants to pursue me, but I'm not sure if he is God-sent. Please help me discern!

A: My advice would be to seek the Holy Spirit.

John 16:13

“Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.”

As I have matured in the Lord, I have learned not to move into anything without seeking the Holy Spirit first. Secondly, it is important to wait on the Lord to do the work.

Psalms 46:10 says to

“Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.”

Also, Proverbs 18:22 says that “Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, And obtaineth favour of the Lord.”

The Lord is the one that help him findeth you. Stay in constant prayer and worship and the Lord will send him to find you in his perfect will and timing.

Prayer for Releasing Burdens

ASLAN'S PLACE

“In Jesus name, I repent for anytime I or those in my family line overstepped authority or took on burdens and responsibilities that you did not intend us to carry.

I repent for anytime I or those in my family line:

- Tried to be a savior to others
- Tried to act as a bridge between others and you, Lord
- Tried to act as a barrier between others and the enemy

In Jesus name, I reject all ungodly positions of authority. Lord please move me fully into the positions of authority that You have established for me.

I repent for allowing an imbalance in the carrying of one another's burdens. I repent for trying to take on other's burdens instead of helping to carry those burdens to you, Lord.

In Jesus name, I now surrender and give over to you, Lord, all burdens that are ungodly, worldly or inappropriate. Regardless of whether they were inherited, others placed them on me or I took them on myself.

Thank you, Jesus, that when I'm weary I can come to You. Thank you for your gentleness and humility. Thank you that what You want me to carry is easy and light. I surrender any remaining burdens over to You and I choose to carry only what You want me to carry. Please help me to continually surrender to you and to never try to take back what I have surrendered.

I repent for anyone in my family line who participated in ungodly trading. I repent for those who traded, cashed-in, or used as collateral the prosperity, well-being, health or inheritance of their descendants and stole it for themselves. Lord, please cancel all these ungodly trades.

I repent for those who were unforgiving, kept records of wrongs, held grudges and nurtured unforgiveness. I repent for those in my family line who established grudges, feuds and unforgiveness as an inheritance.

I declare that I forgive all those who have harmed or come against me or my family line.

Lord, please destroy all ungodly record books, including all records of wrongs.

I now reject all inheritance of unforgiveness and grudges. Lord I surrender all unforgiveness over to you.

I repent for anytime I or those in my family line considered your calling a burden or focused on works and deeds instead of making rest with You a priority. I repent for anytime I or those in my family line perceived your calling on our lives as a burden.

I repent for anytime I or those in my family line focused more on rules of religion or on the law rather than focusing on and nurturing a personal relationship with you. I repent for those in my family line who established religion, traditions and superstition as a burden. I repent for all participation in legalism, religiosity and superstition.

Lord, please cancel any remaining ungodly debt. Please clean up and return to me everything that has been lost, stolen or given away. Please remove from me anything that is not part of your design for me and my life."

First Baptist Episode 6

ANONYMOUS

Shay hastily opened the missing section of the Sataria Scoop and unexpectedly saw her sister, Janis, shown as Myron's alleged accomplice. She was confused and she began to weep uncontrollably. Spade attempted to hold her close, but she ran to her filing cabinet to decode Granny's final cryptic letter:

Jesus is the only

Answer.

No one else

Is.

Shay, remember everything i taught you.

No

One but

God is your source.

Only

Our god can define you. The Devil is a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.”

G-O-O-D

Subsequent to Shay decoding the message and ceasing sobbing, Spade handed her the mysterious manilla envelope. She opened it, and while in the midst of reading it, the young woman collapsed. She literally passed out.

When she came to, some 18 minutes later, her vision focused, and she perceived photos of her unclothed body engaging in acts that only married people should engage in with Officer Spade. She looked at him and asked how? Why?

He went to hug her and she screamed, “You do not dare touch me! I am calling the police!” Spade said, “Baby, please listen to me.” She went to her purse but could not find the business card. He said, “I destroyed the card.” “But I called the number...” “Yes, but it always rang busy; I googled ‘local numbers that always ring busy and found that one.’” She said, “I have the video of the day when you pulled me over.” She went to access the video in her old phone, but all the files were erased. To her despair, absolutely no physical evidence existed.

Shay added, “You knew everything about me, details that you could have only gotten from God.” He replied, “Your sister definitely ain’t God.”

He reached in his briefcase and showed Shay a comprehensive dossier which included her likes, dislikes, favorite foods, colors, movies, her family makeup, her fears, her accomplishments, and her failures. Her ex-boyfriends were presented in chronological order, her jobs, her allergies, doctor’s name, and there existed many more very private details about her past health concerns and many uncomfortable secrets featured in this report. Shay remained momentarily frozen, paralyzed even, as if a deer in the headlights.

She ran to her nightstand and grabbed her

“Saturday night Special.” He said, “Baby, I gave you that gun, there are no bullets. Please give me a few minutes, listen to what I have to say, and I will leave if you ask me to, I promise.”

She said, “But Calvin...” He said, “My name is Blair, I am... was, a conman.” After several other moments of deafening silence and inherent contemplation, Shay offered, “But wherever we went, people knew your name, Spade,” Shay said. The man answered, “I would go to each location before our dates and slip them all a few Franklins. They would have called me the Pope if I paid them to.”

She asked about the photos, “How could you...” He said, “Those photos implied that something happened, but I swear to you that nothing happened; you were drugged up. I strategically placed your body in compromising positions and capitalized on lighting and camera angles. It was just smoke and mirrors, baby, I promise. The night we went to the Cliffhanger, I mixed a cocktail that included GHB pills and Quaaludes into your wine. Shay, you were only supposed to be a job, but then I fell deeply in love with you. Please sit down and listen to me, I am begging you. I have decided to come clean. Megan, who was hired by the Attorney’s office about 4 years ago, is Myron’s sister. She is there to monitor your case and see that all Ms. Mae’s fortune was being managed properly. Your grandmother and Ms. Bea basically raised Myron, but cut him out of the will because while an addict he bled Mae’s savings account to the tune of $150,000. She never forgave him.

When you lived in Michigan and did not speak to your sister that much for a few years, she had fallen really heavy into drugs and in with unbelievably bad people. She met Myron in drug rehab and they have been inseparable ever since.

My brother, Jess, a career criminal, met Myron in the joint and served and serves as Myron’s mentor. It is he who introduced me to ‘Stich’ and ‘Jay.’ The trio financed this lavish façade and offered me 500 grand to extort you, and even more if I made you... disappear. Your sister believes that she is your ‘next of kin,’ and thus, would inherit your fortune. Woman, I simply could not do it... none of it, anymore.

Up until today, when I ‘swept’ your home, your house, car, classroom, and all telephones were bugged, and I won’t even tell you where they had covert video cameras. Jess owes the Russian Mob 1.2 million dollars from a drug deal that went south. Janis and Myron owe Jess about that much, and your fortune is everyone's ticket to complete emancipation.

The conman (former conman?) reached in his pocket, and the young woman flinched, "Baby, relax, I would never hurt you," he said. Then he pulled out a series of fake passports with different names that featured all her specific demographics, photo, height, weight, etc., and tickets to Tuvalu, Kribati, and finally, the Marshall Islands.

Spade, AKA Blair, stated that, "We have to go, these people are extremely dangerous and do not tolerate loose ends. Tomorrow you go to the Attorney's office and have your money sent to this (handing her various documents) Cayman Island offshore account. As you can see, everything is in your name and your name only. You will leave through the kitchen exit, I will pick you up in a rental, and we will drive 90 minutes to Trenton. Using the first set of passports, we'll fly to New York and then onto Tuvalu under the names Pat and Hal Walpert."

She asked, "Mr. Bubba?" He shook his head, "no." "My aunt, Bea?" He shook his head, "no," and added, "this group does not tolerate loose ends." As he dropped to his knees, he said, "My love, you told me that everyone deserves a second chance, I am begging you for another chance and for us to start a new life together, please. You are my gift from heaven. Please be my wife."

First Baptist fans, your suggestions will write the final episode. What should happen to Spade/Blair? What should Shay do? It appears that her life may be in grave danger. She does not know her current boyfriend, her ex-boyfriend, nor her sister.

What happens next?

1 Corinthians 6:19:

“Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?”

Why is the Significant Revelation Losers Weight Loss program going to work, when other diets and other Weight Loss programs have failed?

First off, we are inviting the Holy Spirit to control the program, our disciplines, and collective and individual results. Secondly, the Significant Revelation Losers Weight Loss program is NOT a diet but lifestyle change. Thirdly, we will do it as a Family. Lastly, we are chosen and “we are more than conquerors.”

Last year, we initiated a similar plan and when we had our first meeting, multiple demons manifested! As I recall, at least two of them were “Destruction” and “Gluttony.” I have literally been engaged with a demon who stated, “I make him feel like he’s never satisfied.”

I imagine that most of ya’ll have been around these ministries, ministers, and SigRevelators enough to consider the possibility that some of your “well-nutritionedness” may be spiritual. Some of you can look at the physical and health statuses of your parents, siblings, grandparents and great-grandparents to discern a pattern and maybe recognize a diabolical plan to destroy God’s people.

Could it be possible that we have been engaging in the battle of the bulge in our flesh when the frontline should, in fact, have been breached in the spirit?

A large portion of the success seen in your waistline will come from defeating attacks of stress, loneliness, despair, self-loathing, your time, belief in yourself, etc., targeted at your mind. Yeshua, SigRev and your Accountability Partner will help you overcome some of the challenges that exist prior to 08/20/2022!

Jesus said, “With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.” Family, we are only as strong as our weakest link.
