I was dating a girl and wanted to keep the relationship Godly. God directed us to study the word together. Therefore, we began to do so in a large room that I rented from a female friend. Little did we know that this humble act of obedience would prove to be the beginning of something big.

As we grew in our knowledge and comprehension of the word, our relationship flourished to a fruitful marriage. Once we begin to connect with and understand God's word, we began a bible study in our house. It wasn't "grandmama's bible study" because of the many knowledgeable and gifted individuals God used to form my circle. My thought was that as I learn, I will teach, and that I would push those around me to learn and to teach.

Pastors Donnie and Debbie would attend, and the occasional demon would be expelled right there in our living room. Prophets would show up, and people would receive life-changing words.

Then, God, in a dream, led me to the name "Significant Revelation." God reassigned us to Hawaii, but I did not want to lose the momentum created by the Significant Revelation Bible Study, so we created a national podcast (every Thursday @ 6:00pm) from Maui Hawaii.

Prior to our departure, God directed Pastor Donnie, Head Pastor of LFM, to ordain me. After three, "I'll pray on it and get back with you," responses, he called me in front of the congregation to ordain me. Yes, I just described a "Surprise Ordination;" it's really a thing.

Pastor Donnie, Pastor Price (associate), Pastor Ken, and Apostle Vivian, started giving me words about a "ministry." Then, Pastor Ken said, "Your ministry is not going to look like anyone else's ministry. There is no blueprint as to what you are about to do." All of these men have impeccable prophetic gifts. But me? I am the biggest (EX) sinner I know. How could this be?

I don't know if any of you know this, but I love me some Jesus! Allow me to share something with you.

See, in Acts 2:17, it says:

"In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people; your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams."

My wife was very pregnant at the time and God gave me an amazing dream (old man):

I am on a boat and I have a megaphone. I am on the front of the medium-sized boat and Pastor Amber, Pastor Donnie, Pastor Debbie, Pastor Noe and Pastor Toma are all on the boat standing behind me. (Pastor Ken had not joined LFM yet).

Far in the distance, I could see the orange sun descending into the ocean. In the water, prior to ocean swallowing the fallen sun, I could see what looked to be a shipwreck and the many heads of those who had been shipwrecked floating amongst the wreckage. I remember yelling in the megaphone that we are on our way and for them not to worry.

When we began our approach to the site of the shipwreck, my shipmates began to throw the stranded lifelines, lifesavers, buoys, and ropes. I felt that God made it clear that we could slow down, but we could not stop.

At some point (in the physical), I sat up in the bed and the dream changed into an open vision (young man):

I remember feeling hurt that many souls would not reach for the lifelines. As we slowly sailed through the heart of the wood, debris and bodies, I could see their extremely sad eyes and the fear plastered about their faces.

On the wood that kept them afloat, I could read words like “addiction,” “pornography,” “lesbianism,” “fear,” etc. Then I could see white sharks circling each individual to perpetuate their fear and to keep them from moving or reaching for help.

Even as we passed all the way through the crowd of souls, wifey and the others, continued to throw the lifelines, but most wouldn't reach for them. In my heart, I felt like begging. I was hurt for them, but even then, I knew it was outside of my control and understood that the enemy had fashioned their realities from fear and condemnation. I remember praying that another rescue ship comes by and on those occasions, they would allow themselves to be rescued.

Again, I knew that we could not stop. After passing through that shipwreck, God allowed us to see another. I grabbed the megaphone and the process repeated itself.

Our lives progressed and God returned us back to ATL. Prior to leaving for Maui, we attended a few “nice” Sunday services, but when we returned, we started attending a raw, Holy Ghost prophetic church in South Atlanta.

At the same time, the Significant Revelation Bible Study Podcast was steadfastly growing and people were signing on from a number of states all over the USA, and some were even listening to the rebroadcasts abroad!

During this time, I am receiving additional words from the prophets about this “ministry.” The Holy Spirit began talking to me and Mario about the same time about starting a ministry. On October 3, 2021, Significant Revelation Ministries launched in our home with Pastor Ambi, Pastor Minister Mario, Shauna, Pastor Vee, Pastor Gov and Pastor Chiquita. Then, Pastor Mary, then Britt came. People start seeing angels, giving words, getting healed, etc. By October 31, 2021, the house was about packed out, praise God!

That's some background... but maybe the question was how SigRev has impacted my life over the course of the year? This year has brought me much closer to God.

Recently, God showed one of my SigRev daughters her baby in heaven. I have seen a young man that could not say his first and last name together, bring the word in front of two different church audiences; a baby who would not hug or kiss his mom become more affectionate than any kid I ever seen within the last 90 days; countless people go to heaven; countless people get healed; people that were too shy for you to look at them PREACH; a young lady whose demons wouldn't even allow to say the name, "Jesus," speak in tongues and discern a spirit!; a young lady suffering with stomach issues for a year, eat cake!; people giving prophetic words at Walmart; a 20-something-year-old talk in tongues then translate it for 90 minutes live on the air; people hear without eardrums! God has permitted me to see him touch so many lives.

This story can serve as a posterchild for the SigRev experience: two misfits, a lady and a man who were both dealing with witchcraft, met, fell in love, married, and created a baby. SigRev is God's collection of misfits who love each other, and his Holy Spirit has birthed so much in its people. There are people who I share my Sundays with who will be speaking to nations... How much does God love me to give me a front row seat to his miracles?

SigRev has changed me because I realize that this church serves as a vehicle for us to truly love like Jesus did.

We church differently and we are the unchurched church!

Unshakeable Foundation

CIERRA JACKSON

Do you know what you're a part of?

The foundation of a building provides the basic stability needed to withstand any form of pressure or condition. This structural system is understood to operate as a unit throughout the lifespan of the building. It's important to know the foundation of what you're a part of; whether it's an organization, church, holiday, or even certain product brands that we elect to buy. Do you know their foundation? Do you know their beliefs? Do you know their origin? It's not to be over analytical, but to gain a sense of what we are inheriting.

Significant Revelation Foundation

“Church Differently,” is the motto for Significant Revelation (SigRev). We believe that the Holy Spirit should have the freedom to fully operate during our unionship to change our lives and the lives of others. God allows the use of spiritual giftings and guidance to aid in our teachings. Nothing’s impossible here! This is the home of the supernatural, but not in a scientific way. We are cemented in Christ. He has supernaturally provided the structural system of SigRev.

Our Building blocks

- Matthew 18:20

“For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them.”

- Hebrews 13:5

“Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said, ‘Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you.’”

- John 15:7

“If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.”

- John 14: 13-14

“And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.”

- Mark 16:17-20

“And these signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up snakes with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all; they will place their hands on sick people, and they will get well. After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven and he sat at the right hand of God. Then the disciples went out and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked with them and confirmed his word by the signs that accompanied it.”

- Mathew 10:8

“Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give.”

- John 14:12

“Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.”

- Mark 9:23

“If you can?” said Jesus. “Everything is possible for one who believes.”

- Hebrews 6:18

“God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope set before us may be greatly encouraged.”

The SigRev System

Collectively, these scriptures are the building blocks that form the platform in which God has anointed this church. The ability to commune, worship, receive prophetic words, visions, miracles, spiritual gifts etc., is only an outward projection of the understanding of these scriptures. Our belief is what activates the channel for God to simply be God. We believe in the WHOLE bible! If God spoke it, then it happened, and it still happens today.

The Red Zone

MINISTER MARIO WILLIAMS

Contending for your promise in the Spirit, I compare it to the NFL (National Football League). In the NFL, the hardest thing to do is score. You can drive the whole length of the football field, but when you get down to the last 20 yards before a touchdown, that’s what they call the “Red Zone,” it’s extremely hard to score; it’s more compact.

When you get into the “Red Zone,” the defense will start blitzing and putting a lot of players in the box to keep you from getting in the End Zone. It’s just like that in the Spirit.

Let’s say the blessing is the “End Zone.” When you get ready to get the blessing God has given you, or said is yours, the enemy will put a lot of players in the box. They will send the hardest blitz they can to keep you from getting into the “End Zone.”

But if God says you’re going to be blessed, you’re going to be blessed. There’s nothing the enemy can do to stop you, no matter how many blitzes he attempts, no matter how many different plays he tries to keep you out.

You’re going to get into the “End Zone;” there’s nothing he can do to stop you!

Let It Die

MINISTER BILL VAUGHN

This week has brought the first signs of Fall to our part of Mississippi. The days are shortening, leaves are starting to fall, temperatures are dropping, and farmers are harvesting their crops as they mature and form seeds. Many plants are going a metamorphosis as their leaves wither, die, and fall off. This process can be a thing of beauty because the leaves from many types of trees turn brilliant shades of orange, red, yellow, or brown before falling to the ground. The changes of color indicate a time of death for the plant, but they are also an indicator of the good things to come in the spring as the new leaves grow back!

Are there things in your life that need to wither and die? Perhaps it's a bad habit or addiction, a toxic relationship, a dead-end job, grudges, hatred, fear, or anything else that keeps you from being the person that God has called you to be. I challenge you to prayerfully LET IT DIE and allow God to birth something new in your life. He has a plan for you, and He is a God of new beginnings!

Jeremiah 29: 11-13

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, ‘plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.’”

The process of letting something die can be painful, but God can bring new life to us when we fully submit to His authority. The Bible is full of stories of broken people who submitted to God, and they did great things once they let the old things in their lives wither and die.

The process of letting something die can be painful, but God can bring new life to us when we fully submit to His authority.

The apostle Paul is a prime example of someone who allowed his old self to die so that he could become who God wanted him to be. In the book of Acts 7, Paul (then known as Saul) was present for the murder of the first Christian martyr, Stephen. They “dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul.” (NIV) Paul was a wicked man who persecuted, arrested, and murdered many Christians in the early church, but God had a different plan for him! God supernaturally intervened in his life, and he became one of the greatest men of faith to have ever lived. The old man, Saul, had to wither and die so that the new man, Paul, could blossom into the man that God wanted him to be. God turned a murderer into one of the greatest soul winners of all time!

Acts 9:1-8

“Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord’s disciples. He went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way,

Acts 9:20-22

“At once he began to preach in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of God. All those who heard him were astonished and asked, ‘Isn’t he the man who raised havoc in Jerusalem among those who call on this name? And hasn’t he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?’ Yet Saul grew more and more powerful and baffled the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Messiah.”

Are you at a time of fall or harvest in your life? I challenge you to give the situation to God, let it die, and see how God wants to change things in the next seasons of your life. You will never be the same!

whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?’

‘Who are you, Lord?’ Saul asked.

‘I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,’ he replied. ‘Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.’

The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound but did not see anyone. Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus.”

Paul’s sight was supernaturally restored to him, and he soon began to tell the world about Jesus:

Fear Not

BRITTANY BLACK

You give me joy in the morning and peace for me at night.

For each day has enough trouble that I won't worry about tomorrow, but instead lay it at your feet.

*For you said to me 365 times to not be afraid and that means every day in a calendar year
I should not be afraid.*

So, what is the use in worrying?

Deliverance Corner

Prayer to Abolish Fear

ASLAN'S PLACE

"Father, I come as your child, your heir, to repent on behalf of my generational line and myself for all of us who have failed to recognize our position and authority in Christ Jesus, choosing to be intimidated by fear rather than trusting you to be sufficient for all of our needs. Please forgive us for all of the times that we have set our eyes on the cares of the world instead of seeking You first.

I repent for any instance in which we have frightened others through words or actions, becoming fear mongers who spread false teachings and the deceitfulness of the world. I now declare the truth that You, Lord, are my light and my salvation; of whom shall I be afraid? You are the strength of my life so whom should I fear? You are my hiding place, my deliverer and protector, and I choose now to take up the full armor of God and use all of the weapons you put at my disposal to resist fear, knowing that it must flee in the face of faith.

In times when I am tempted to be afraid, I now choose to be strong and to let my heart take courage as I wait for You. I choose to change my thinking and set my mind on things above, looking to You as my deliverer, for I am persuaded that nothing in any physical or spiritual dimension is able to separate me from Your love.

Father, Lord Jesus, Holy Spirit; You are my perfect love and I trust You now to cast fear out of my life according to your promise, and I ask for a seven-fold return through the blood of Jesus of all that the enemy has stolen from me through fear and all of its by-products; I ask for your joy to well up within me and bubble over onto everyone I encounter; I boldly ask for the gift of faith to live with the assurance of things hoped for and the conviction of things not seen, faith to move the mountains in my life and to live in victory through Christ Jesus.

I declare that this is the foundation of my faith; God is real, His Word is true; Jesus said it so I believe it, and I must always seek Him first. first. My life is His; He is my refuge and strength, my place of rest, my peace and my hope; He meets my every need. With Him on my side, I willingly choose to join the battle!"

Significant Losers

PRE'FRANZ DOMINICK & PASTOR HAMPTON

"Start within; it's not about the weight you lose but the Life you gain."

Introduction

This is a journey that you are going to be embarking on for the rest of your life. This is not a diet; it is a lifestyle change. In order to make a lifestyle change, it takes some reflection. It takes reprogramming of the mind, breaking away from cultural habits and implementing good healthy habits. Learning the body is important to recognizing when something is working with or against our bodies. The objective is not to become skinny and just lose weight. It's about healing the body and healing our relationship with food.

Throughout this program, you will learn about consistency with being healthy, eating the way that God designed us to eat, and incorporating moderation. Our body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. If our body is unhealthy, we won't be here long physically to do what God has sent us to do. We're here to serve God and our health is essential to carry out our mission and responsibilities.

Water (Foundational):

Males bodies are made up of 60% water; females are made up of 55% water

- It's a necessity
- Hydrates the skin keeping it young and youthful
- Carries nutrients and oxygen to your cells
- flushes bacteria from your bladder
- aids digestion
- prevents constipation
- normalizes blood pressure
- cushions joints
- protects organs and tissues
- regulates body temperature
- maintains electrolyte (sodium) balance

Drink 20oz or 32oz 30 minutes before your meal. That gives it time to absorb in the intestines. It hydrates and primes the system for the meal. That way you won't mistake hunger for thirst. Drinking while eating at the same time can cause bloating and dilute the stomach acid, which makes your body break down food slower.

Food Pairing & Combining

Fruit:

- Fruit digests faster than any other food. Fruit should be eaten by itself. Fruit when combined with other foods, will sit and ferment in your stomach and cause stomach discomfort.
- Eat fruit 30 minutes to an hour before another meal for it to move out of your stomach, like a pre-meal.

Vegetables

You should have half a plate of veggies with your meal every day. Even if that's a bit of a stretch, getting even a cup of veggies is cool too. Vegetables are high in water and fiber and therefore are low in calories and high in energy.

We're here to serve God and our health is essential to carry out our mission and responsibilities.

These are just some examples of the best types of vegetables to eat when starting this lifestyle change:

- Spinach - It's lower in calories, has loads of nutrients, and is versatile for many sorts of recipes.
- Broccoli – It's versatile. You can eat it in salads, slaws, pasta, or simple roast it as a main meal.
- Spaghetti squash - It's an ideal low calorie alternative. A cup of spaghetti squash contains 42 calories. It's low in fat and provides fiber to help you stay full longer.
- Brussel Sprouts - These cruciferous vegetables are loaded with fiber to help you feel full fast and stay satiated for a while. A cup of Brussels sprouts contains 38 calories.
- Green peas - A cup contains 9 grams of fiber. Green peas can help you meet your fiber goals.
- Cauliflower – It contains 27 calories per cup. It contains fiber, is fat-free, cholesterol free, and low in sodium.
- Sweet potatoes – They has more fiber than white potatoes and is also a healthier alternative in the form of carbohydrates.

Most importantly, incorporate more dark leafy greens in your meal because they destroy adipose tissue.

Snacking

Snacking is good! However, it is important that we incorporate the right types of snacks, focusing on what's adding nutrition and not just pleasure foods that only offer empty calories and leave you hungrier. It's okay to indulge in pleasure foods from time-to-time, but these things should be done in moderation as they contain toxins and chemicals that can break your body down overtime. You want your body to be able to function properly and break down toxins; if your body is not functioning properly, it cannot perform well for you.

Some examples of healthy alternatives for my french fries and chip lovers are:

- Zucchini fries
- Apple chips
- Pita chips
- Kale chips
- Baked potato fries
- Green bean fries
- Sweet potato fries

Some examples of healthy alternatives for my sweet tooth lovers:

- Açaí smoothie bowl - This berry is considered a superfood. It's high in antioxidants and is said to have health benefits for the brain, heart and overall health. This can be bought frozen at your local grocery store and mixed with other fruits to provide a refreshing taste.
- Apples and peanut butter or almond butter
- Fruits
- Greek Yogurts without added sugars w/ fruit

- Dates
- Smoothies
- Dark chocolate

These are just small examples thrown out there. We can get into making fun recipes later, but we wanted to give basic changes to cookies, fast food, cupcakes, pastries, pies, ice creams, sodas, etc.

Foods to Avoid or be Mindful of:

We’re not saying you have to stop “cold turkey;” however, we’re recommending that everyone become mindful of everything that’s going into their mouths. These things can either help or hurt you. So, these food should be items to start slowly breaking away from because they do not provide any nutritional value, and in fact, can cause many health issues.

In 2018, 34.2 million people of all ages had type 1 or 2 diabetes. That was 10.5% of the U.S. population. In 2022, reports showed that 11.3% of the U.S. population had diabetes with 23.0% of people not knowing they had diabetes at all. Now, more than 130 million adults are living with diabetes or pre-diabetes thanks to these foods we are about to discuss. If you go on any of the large health organization websites approved by the FDA, they also encourage people to eat the very foods linked to the diseases they’re supposed to be fighting against. In fact, they even sponsor some of the food corporations.

- Processed Meats - These foods have high levels of added sugar, sodium and fat. Although these ingredients make food taste good, too much of them leads to serious health issues like obesity, heart disease, high blood pressure, and diabetes, and don’t forget cancer. These foods have carcinogens such as nitrates and nitrites which are used to keep processed meat fresher for longer.
- Processed foods – This includes foods such as chips, candy, pastries, sodas, and sugary cereals. Believe it or not, these are more processed than white bread. These foods add absolutely no nutritional value to your body, and are linked to many health issues. Stay clear of white breads as well.
- Fried foods – This includes fast food restaurants, or anything deep fried in lots of oils at home. Especially in less healthier oils such as Crisco or vegetable oils. Many heated processed oils can cause an increased risk of heart disease

Once again, you can eat anything you want! You don't have to cut all of these things out all at once. This is a lifestyle change, and with change comes time and patience. Every day is a learning experience! But, you do want to make sure you're not consuming these foods often as they can lead to serious health consequences. (Hampton's analogy) Think of it like this: If you drive a car and put the wrong oil or gas in it, then it's not going to function properly. So, it's the same for your body. What are you fueling your body with? Remember, SigRev Family, this is the first day of the rest of your life!

Rosh Hashanah Prophetic Word

ASHLEY PIERCE

“Blow the trumpet in Zion. And let the great trumpet be heard. For the King is coming! The King is coming to walk amongst his people. Glean from him. Come close to see what he will offer you.

The King is in the field. The Lion of Judah amongst the people. Ask what you will! See the power in the Lion's stride, unconcerned with the cares of the day. So shall his sons be. For they are prepared. Prepared for battle. The King is in the field... whom shall we fear. Our great king has come down to walk amongst us... of whom shall we be afraid.

In this great day the King roars behind us. Behind our battle cry. LISTEN. LISTEN to the shofar blow. Victory is on the horizon! But first battle... but look here. The King fights for us. Can't you see him in his splendor. Mountains tremble at his word. Heaven moves, waiting for his beckoning. The Host of Heaven will move on his behalf. And the King's decree? To fight for you. Push back the darkness. So that my people can come through. The sons of God are moving into position. Blow the trumpets! For their heavenly alignment is here. Bow before me... receive your crowns, your positioning. And your battle armor. To fight for me is a great honor. Send your weak, your feeble, and I will make a mighty army. Not of those chosen by man. But those chosen by God. I look at the heart. I equip. The time is now.

BLOW the Trumpet in Zion! The King is here! And his great reward is with him. Milk and honey flow from him. From his garments is everlasting to everlasting. Everlasting freedom. Everlasting victory. Take off your slave clothes. And put on the Everlasting. The King is in the room. Remove your shoes. And bow down. I visit every one. With the instructions for the day (the season). Apostle Viviane released the blessing.

BLOW the trumpet! I have arrived. Rejoice, drink. Dance while I am with you. For at dusk we fight. BLOW THE TRUMPET IN ZION! I have arrived."

Why Do Some People Want Their Demons?

PASTOR NOE

I know that sounds like a crazy question, but there are actual people that want their demons. This is actually a common occurrence.

I'm talking to those people that have an awareness that a spirit could be influencing them - even if you don't believe in the Bible. Now any spirit that takes your focus away from Yah/God or His will manifesting in your life is a demon and they come by many names, shapes, and characteristics.

I'm going to break this down into 4 general categories with some examples:

...any spirit that takes your focus away from Yah/God or His will manifesting in your life is a demon...

1) Physical - Many people are familiar with this as it's so unusual and because of how our culture has regressed. Spectrophilia, which is basically a spirit, either an Incubus (male) or a Succubus (female), that has intimate relations with a human. Many times, torturing the person by raping them in a sense. I'll start here as it's one that most people are aware of. I don't know what percentage of people experience this, but it's a real phenomenon.

In 2018, there was an Australian woman who wanted to marry her Incubus and have spirit children (<https://nypost.com/2018/10/30/woman-who-had-sex-with-20-ghosts-is-now-engaged-to-a-spirit/>). Many of her friends were applauding her.

I've read a question that was posed on Quora where one person asked, "What demon do I need to summon to increase my muscle gains?" This actually drew much feedback such as stating that demons know how to get us to secrete particular hormones and other such comments. Yes, demons can do that, BUT I strongly suggest not doing any of this nonsense. But some people will regardless for their earthly lusts. The aftereffects can be much worse than steroids as one could lose their soul.

2) Emotional - While this one may not always apply, or even make logical sense, there are people that are dealing with so much that their decisions may be skewed.

Sometimes, these people hold onto their depression, anger, rejection, or any of the lies of the enemy, and they don't know any better. I've done that myself, so I know. They may feel so bad about themselves that, in some cases, they want others to feel bad for them or with them. Hurt (adjective) people hurt (verb) people. In extreme cases, they believe if they die, they will feel like they will get the last laugh - in that others will finally believe they were that bad off. Not a good situation to be in at all, but some people feed off this as the enemy wants them too. They feel like they'll get some (negative) benefit from this.

3) Mental - Pastor Toma & I once ministered to a person that had a demon of intellectualism. He was so convinced he was right. He was a disciple of Yeshua, in this case, so at least there was some humility we could work with. Eventually, it came out that he had a demon of intellectualism. Have you ever noticed that some smart people believe that their intelligence covers every other area of their life? Usually, they have a blind spot in their lives that they can't see.

The demon that was pestering him would put the thoughts in his head, "Do you really believe what the Bible is saying?"

In other words, their pride blinds them as they believe they have some type of mental superiority. In this case, if I recall correctly, this person had some intellectual professor or some type of mentor in him that was causing the client to behave this way.

Eventually, The Ruach/Spirit led us to this verse as we called down insanity and confusion on that particular demon which helped us to progress along:

Act 26:24

"And as he was saying these things in his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, 'Paul, you are out of your mind; your great learning is driving you out of your mind.' But Paul said, 'I am not out of my mind, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking true and rational words.'"

4) Soul - in this last category, I'll give the example of those that do the dark arts and get off on knowing they can attack people without them knowing - as they operate in the spiritual realm. It gives them a sense of power much like it does with computer hackers, except they are soul hackers or soul hunters as Ezekiel 13:18-23 puts it. They get off on the negative spiritual power. Sometimes, it's not so extreme and it comes off as one person just wanting to help somebody else with a simple spell. But overall, it ain't that simple as you just gave a demon a legal right to use you.

So here is the tricky part: Which came first? The demon or the desire? Well, that is a case-by-case question as there are many variables that must be considered. But the answer is basically that we all have something we need to overcome. That's the point of life, right? That's why we need a personal Savior - Yeshua/Jesus. We all need to turn to Him regardless of our past as He is our Healer, our Savior, and our Deliverer. He can still get glory through us and even our past, whatever that is, per:

Genesis 50:20

"As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today."

James 1:12-14

"Blessed is the man who does endure trial, for when he has been proved, he shall receive the crown of life which the Master has promised to those who love Him. Let no one say when he is enticed, 'I am enticed by Elohim,' for Elohim is not enticed by evil matters, and He entices no one. But each one is enticed when he is drawn away by his own desires and trapped."

So why do people allow these demons? I believe the answer is empowerment - whether they believe that empowerment is good, bad, or indifferent. They want some type of advantage, but their thinking is skewed and very short term - because in the long run, a demon is always going to take from you more than what you may have gained.

Mark 8:36

"For what shall it profit a man if he gains all the world, and loses his own life?"

However, ignorance also has a role here as well, but that's not what I'm focusing on in this writing. But the Good News is that we can still turn to our personal Savior Yeshua/Jesus to help us in our times of need, and seek Him while He can still be found (Isaiah 55:6-7).

Shay grew to understand that this situation, though hurtful, remained quite dangerous. Innocent people had died and she had been misled and manipulated by more than a few. After many tears and heavy sorrow, Shay agreed to Spade/Blair's terms and told him that the couple would flee as he outlined. She then asked that she be left alone to process everything, pack, and get as many of her affairs in order as possible.

Armed with a Hannah Montana backpack, and using the apartment's rear staircase and exit, Shay hopped the fence on Slater Street and made her way to the bus stop on Farley Gap Chase. She boarded bus #13 and was not seen again until about two and a half hours later. Upon her return to her place, she was devoid of the mysterious backpack.

Night fell, the sun rose, and then, at exactly 7:26am, Blair texted Shay with, “I am here my Love.” By 7:33am, the couple was on their way to the plush offices of Betancour, Claven & Schmidt.

In an effort to promote a degree of normalcy, Shay accessed Bishop Jinx’ most recent sermon, “Control Tower.” He came from Proverbs 23:7: “Ya’ll are what ya’ll eat, ya’ll be worrying ‘bout the Real Housewives of dis here and that there, rather than knowing about the real housewives of Jerusalem or dem real housewives of the Bible! If you eat the word, it will stay with you. But if you eat that mess, it's gonna stay with you. That’s how come when you eat poorly and you belch, we gone smell it. When you live poorly, sooner or later, we gone see it... God is always sooner, not later; he knows. You might be fooling you, but you ain't never fooling He who sits high and looks low! ‘Member this, actions always come from thoughts. Yo hands and feets are gonna go where your mind has already been!

Ya’ll playing dem videos and watching dem movies. You ain't got time to watch Freddy and Jason if you studying Festus and Jesus! You ain't got time to jam with John Legend if you studyin’ the Legend, John the Baptist.” Prior to turning Bishop off, he could be heard saying, “if you don’t control yo thoughts, the devil is gonna control you with them! Fill yo mind up with these thoughts:

Joyful

Eternal

Selfless

Understanding

Son of God

Not

Stupid

Hurtful

Idiotic

Things.”

It’s like the recording was cut short; however, that was of little consequence because the two had navigated the traffic and made it safely to the lawyer’s office. Spade advised that he would park out front and for her “safety” he had posted several men near the high-rise's back and side exits. He made it known that everyone had a photo of her and knew what she was wearing so that she "can be protected."

Without incident, Shay collected her money and prior to exiting the Fleshinger Building, ventured to the ladies' room on the 3rd floor. She entered stall 4, climbed on the commode, and accessed the Hannah Montana book bag that she hid in the drop ceiling on the day before.

Padding herself with couch pillows, and changing into what can only be described as a large pastel-colored moo-moo, she adorned her crown with a blonde wig and sported large sunglasses and old-school saddle shoes. As soon as she left the lavatory, and as she carried a walking cane, she pulled the fire alarm. As the 2,356 business occupants hustled about, the stout, blonde-haired woman masterfully blended in with the crowd. Realizing that the mail room would be empty, she placed a box that enclosed her iPhone, and anything else received from the imitation lawmen that could possibly track her whereabouts at any given time, in the mail shoot and immediately took her exit.

The last thing this writer heard is that Shay, in her interesting getup, was resting comfortably on a Greyhound heading south on I-95. To date, the Millionairess Choir Director has not been seen.

Months had passed without one word from Shay. As fate would have it, First Baptist and the Glory of Light Choir went on without her. Lee "Lee-Lee" Rushworth assumed the reigns of Choir Director.

Lee had struggled with the spirit of homosexuality, and prior to relocating to the Tri-City area, was arrested as one of the infamous Saint Louis "108 Boys." Lee's case was dismissed because of a technicality. He changed his name and moved to the Tri-City area. He joined First Baptist about 3 or so years ago and has professed to giving his life to Jesus.

Prior to Johnny Law catching up to them, the 108 Boys built a successful criminal enterprise syndicate. Their crimes were not the run-of-the-mill drug dealing or strong-arm burglaries. No, their leader, Glenn "Bowie" Richardson, an MIT Graduate, developed a lucrative legal and innovative plan to make he and the other 22 members of the 108 Boys filthy rich!

After graduating Cum Laude, "Bowie" Richardson took classes to secure his life insurance agent's license from Saint Louis' world-renowned Readington Insurance Center (RIC). Richardson moved to the quiet, quaint suburb of Kirkwood, MO.

Using 108 Boys front man, Barret "BB" Lester, the gang gleaned a high interest $150,000 loan from St. Louis kingpin, "Dwell." Court documents later revealed that BB and Dwell were believed to be second cousins.

Bowie's studies of economics, statistics and trends determined that Saint Louis' zip code, 63108 offered the country's highest murder rate. Utilizing the 150 stacks secured from Dwell, and obtaining all the necessary permits, licensure, insurance, certificates, etc., the team opened a grand office on 5th Oak between Abbeville Dr., and 82nd Boulevard. Yes, this property sits on the border of the Bloodz and the Cryps' territories. The local news outlets have dubbed this stretch of land, "Death Row."

Even the bullet proof glass in front of the service desk and the burglar bars seemed to have a special flare and touted tangible "Hood-Cred". The company offered a $100 signing bonus to anyone who wanted to get insurance. An extra $50 was paid to the named insured if they attended the orientation.

The average policy was valued at $250,000 but the insured's family or offspring received $10,000 when the policy paid. The balance was paid to Bowie and certain other trusted members of the 108 Boys' hierarchy. Though immoral, the 108 Boys' Attorney, Milton King, argued that it was quite legal.

The primary job of Cheryl "Slyce" Simmons, the company's secretary, was to monitor her police scanner, watch the news daily, and keep her ears to the street. After a 7-figure first quarter, "One-O-Eight, Inc." opened a second office about a mile up the way on 82nd Boulevard but in the GD's (Gangster Disciples) section of town. Though downright diabolical, the company made a great deal of money and did so in a very short time.

According to the St. Louis Beacon, issues arose when a subset of the 108 Boys began to eliminate the insured. Their top Asian enforcer, Li Wei Nguyen AKA "Won AteSeven" turned state evidence to stop his wife and children from being deported.

Most of the 108 Boys are currently doing long bids at Missouri's Potosi Correctional Center (PCC). Yet, Lee "Lee-Lee" Rushworth, to this day, diligently pushes the sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses to represent Bishop Jinx and our beloved First Baptist throughout the Tri-City area.

First Annual S.W.A.T. Conference

PASTOR HAMPTON

It was an honor and a privilege to attend this year's first ever Spiritual Warfare Advanced Training Conference at Significant Revelation Church. We were blessed to be there with Pastor Mark, Pastor Noe, Pastor Ken, Pastor Chiquita, Pastor Debbie, and Pastor Donnie! It truly was a power-packed evening.

Those that were able to be there, or tune in online, were blessed with seven powerful men and women of God with years and years of experience in deep spiritual warfare. Each Pastor brought something unique and profound to the table.

We dove deep into the topics of spiritual warfare, deliverance, and inner healing. We received gems of knowledge from each Pastor who brought a unique style and experience to the table and so much of what the Lord has shown them in their walk as the he continues to sharpen their spiritual swords and technique.

There were many topics discussed, but one that really stood out was the topic of witchcraft. In this day and time, witchcraft is more prevalent than it has been possibly at any other time. Society, movies, and culture even promote it and consider it normal. We know as Christians that the Lord detests witchcraft, and we were enlightened on many things such as ways to identify and even combat it.

This conference really served to further equip us and bring awareness on how to defend ourselves as Christians and even take the offensive position. We must be equipped as a soldier going into battle; a soldier does not enter into warfare without their armor, their weaponry, knowledge of the terrain, Intel on the enemy, and most importantly, with the orders and communication from our general: Jesus and his Holy Spirit.

2 Corinthians 10:4

"For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds."

Ephesians 6:12

"For We wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities, powers, against rulers of darkness of this world, and against spiritual wickedness in high places."

These two scriptures really highlight what we learned in this year's S.W.A.T. Conference, and what those who partook were there for: to be more spiritually equipped to walk as men and women of God in a time such as this. I PRAISE God for all that he has done for us, and for these Pastors who came to bless everyone and better equip the body of Christ. Thank you, Jesus! And thank you for all the knowledge and wisdom shared by these wonderful men and women of God.

A Good Father Sometimes Says, "No."

SHAUNA WILLIAMS

The Word tells us we have become God's children through Christ (Romans 8:15-17). Like any good Father, it's against his nature to give you something that is harmful, even if you deeply desire it. His ways and thoughts are higher, in the same way a parent can see beyond the current perspective of his or her child (Isaiah 55:8-9). He freely gives what aligns with his will, promising to withhold nothing that's GOOD from us (Psalms 84:11).

Sometimes it's timing that makes the difference between a request being "good" or harmful for us. Sometimes it's the hidden things that await along the wrong turn that we can't see. God knows the true desires of our hearts. Once we come to trust the goodness of God, as his children, we can confidently seek his will and await HIS timing for every area of our lives. Don't feel abandoned or forgotten, a good Father sometimes says, "no."

Allow God to be good.

Romans 8:15-17

"The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father."

Isaiah 55:8-9

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts."

Psalms 84:11

"For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord bestows favor and honor; no good thing does he withhold from those whose walk is blameless.
