

The Casey Family 2025

The Casey Family is a gospel music group based in Riverdale, California. With hearts to glorify Jesus in whatever they do, the family travels each summer across the country, ministering through heartfelt harmonies, song, and testimony of God's goodness. From California to Tennessee and beyond, they have been honored to sing in churches of all sizes and have become a familiar name in the "Best of the West Showcase" at the Great Western Fan Festival hosted by The Hoppers.

For over five years, the Caseys have trained under some of Southern Gospel's finest at the Steve Hurst School of Music. They've been both students and featured performers while building lasting friendships with artists like The Herb Henry Family, The Erwins, Tribute Quartet, The Perrys, The Guardians, and The Hoppers. These experiences have not only sharpened their craft, but also opened doors to meaningful ministry opportunities.

At home, the Caseys are involved in their local church, teaching Sunday School, helping in church outreaches, or serving in various roles; they remain committed to using their gifts for the Kingdom, on and off the platform.

Meet the Family:

Mel Casey – A seasoned vocalist and songwriter, Mel's passion for Gospel music began in his youth while touring with the Ambassador Youth Choir. He's a past soloist with the H.I.M. Mass Choir (1998–2019) and has won several awards, including 1st place in the Great Western Fan Festival Talent Contest. His original songs—"I Want To Say Thank You," "Because of the Blood," and "Find My Faith"—anchor the group's message and mission.

Sheretta Casey – The musical backbone of the group, Sheretta arranges harmonies, plays piano, and keeps the group musically in sync. Also a member of the H.I.M. Mass Choir, Sheretta has led children's choirs and faithfully serves as a mother both at home and in ministry.

The Casey Kids - Alanna, Mel III, Mackenzie, and Aimee have grown up on the road singing for Jesus. Alanna recently graduated from Liberty University and continues to stay involved in ministry and music. Mel III is currently enrolled in a ministry school, pursuing God's call on his life to minister. Mackenzie now travels with the Ambassador Youth Choir, following in her parents' and siblings' footsteps. Aimee and Mackenzie continue to bring energy, joy, and heartfelt worship to every concert. Each of the Casey kids plays a vital role in the group, whether on stage or behind the scenes, as they grow into the unique callings God has put on their lives.
