

Welcome

TO THE HIDDEN JEM

Step into a realm where history gracefully intertwines with modern elegance at our exclusive private event estate. Nestled among the vines, you'll find a beautifully reimagined English barn, accompanied by farmhouse accommodations just steps away. The Hidden JEM offers an enchanting escape across 66 acres of breathtaking rolling grape vines in the heart of Cutchogue, New York.

At The Hidden JEM, we redefine sophistication, creating a sanctuary of quiet luxury on the North Fork of Long Island. Here, raw roots meet refined style, providing the perfect backdrop for unforgettable moments. Immerse yourself in the charm of our picturesque surroundings and experience the pinnacle of comfort and elegance in our Barn & Farmhouse. Join us in crafting cherished memories that will last a lifetime.

THE Barn

Welcome to our beautifully reimagined barn, established in 1680 and transformed into Long Island's pioneering vineyard in 1973. Now meticulously restored in 2025, our 66-acre working winery stands as the ideal venue for your North Fork wedding weekend. Celebrate your special moments with a rehearsal dinner, afterparty, or photo shoot in a serene, private setting, featuring a picturesque half-mile driveway, flourishing vines, and breathtaking sunset views. Enjoy flexible spaces that offer a truly unique vineyard experience.

Inside, you'll find a vintage mercantile cocktail bar, reclaimed tables, and a cozy lounge adorned with a classic chesterfield and club chairs. Charming accents throughout blend modern touches with timeless elegance. With a surround sound system, your celebration can effortlessly transition to the reclaimed wood dance floor.

THE Farmhouse

A charming vineyard farm road winds gracefully off a peaceful rural street, leading to a sleek, modern farmhouse that perfectly fuses charm with contemporary style. This retreat features spacious sleeping arrangements, including 6 inviting bedrooms, 7 cozy beds, and 3.5 baths, all designed for ultimate comfort and relaxation.

Step outside to the stunning Gunite pool area, an idyllic setting for lounging and entertaining in style. Inside, the home strikes a flawless balance between chic elegance and cozy warmth, with a thoughtful layout that ensures privacy while encouraging unforgettable gatherings.

Each bed is ideally sized to accommodate various group sizes, making it the perfect haven for friends and family. Notably, this remarkable property inspired Louisa Hargrave's celebrated book, "The Vineyard."

Nestled in serene seclusion, you can wander down a dirt road to discover the original Long Island Tasting Room. Enjoy breathtaking vineyard sunset views while being just moments away from several beautiful beaches, perfectly situated between the Long Island Sound and Peconic Bay.

The farmhouse is a flawless complement to the barn and the festivities that await at this extraordinary JEM of a property.
