

“The Power of Prayer Opening the Future.”

Rev. James Lee

The phrase "he who does not work shall not eat" keeps ringing in my head. Along with it, a particular passage comes to mind:

"14 How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? 15 And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: 'How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, Who bring glad tidings of good things!'" (Romans 10:14-15)

How can we hear God's voice if we do not pray? How can we understand His will if we do not read His Word? And how can we live a life pleasing to Him if we do not know His will? In self-reflection, I pray: "Lord, awaken our sleeping souls and rekindle the passion that has stalled within me."

Last Sunday, our entire congregation launched the Bible Transcribing Campaign. I look forward to this precious time of hearing God’s voice as we write down His words. Furthermore, I hope that as every member participates with a heart of laying a single brick, we can together build our church’s collective portion of the Scriptures.

As a pastor, I have always felt consumed by the compulsion that I must constantly do something. Yet, unless God opens the door, nothing moves forward. Wishing for a ministry opened by God, I continually pray that I may fully yield to and follow His will. Fearing that God might open a door without my foolish self even realizing it, I pray to remain sensitive to the movement of the Holy Spirit.

God has led us to begin this congregation-wide Bible transcribing effort as the first step toward the future of Valley Korean Presbyterian Church. I am deeply grateful to see the passion of our members actively joining in this endeavor. My prayer in launching this is that we do not merely pursue unity in words, but demonstrate true togetherness through prayer and a shared purpose. What makes this journey even more wonderful is that this act of unity centers on recording God’s holy Word.

Please pray for the unity of our entire congregation as we transcribe the Scriptures. Pray that our church grows into a beautiful community anchored in God’s Word—a community that increasingly resembles Jesus Christ. We have now taken the very first step. I hope every member capable of writing will participate, whether in English or Korean, and regardless of their handwriting.
