Breakfast with Jim Dodson

Saturday, October 15th –8:00 to 9:30 am – Shoneys in Clinton

Come and meet Jim Dodson, candidate for Tennessee State House of Representatives, on Saturday, October 15th at the Shoneys in Clinton (2405 Charles Seivers Blvd) for a no-host breakfast from 8:00 to 9:30am.

Jim is an Oak Ridge City Council member, an art teacher at Jefferson Middle School in Oak Ridge and a community volunteer for non-profits including ADFAC and United Way. He would love to meet with you and discuss your views on issues of interest.

You can choose the Shoney's breakfast bar ($12.99) or select from the menu, at your own expense. Shoney's does not require that you eat in order to come and meet Jim.

Future ACDWC Events

Club Updates

Officer Elections: We will be electing the 2023 ACDWC Officers at the November meeting. If you would like to be an officer, please contact Nancy Lain Highfill as soon as possible (highfillnancy@gmail.com). Nominations from the floor will be accepted as well.

The officers on the ballot at this time are:

President: Ann Mostoller

Vice President: Millicent Taylor

Treasurer: Jan Newsome

Secretary: Ann Miller

Nominating Chair: Open position

Tennessee Federation of Democratic Women: We are planning to host the yearly convention here in Oak Ridge in April 2023. If you would like to help with this event, in planning or during the convention, please contact Jan Newsome or any Board member. All volunteers will be gladly put to work!

Last Month's Meeting: Candidate Meet & Greet

The ACDP had an invigorating meeting with Jason Martin, Meg Gorman, and Jim Dodson on September 17th. The candidates were able to give us their views on their top line issues, and thoroughly answered every question that the audience ask of them. It was a great event!
