Daily Itinerary

Day 1 | June 19, 2027 | Milan – Vallunga

Elevation Gain: 0 m | Distance: 4 km

Morning pick-up at 10:00 AM from Milan Central Station, in front of the Big Apple, followed by departure for Val Gardena. Along the way, there will be a short stop at a motorway service area for lunch and a restroom break; lunch is not included. Upon arrival in Vallunga, enjoy a gentle 4 km walk on flat terrain—an ideal introduction to hiking in the Dolomites. Check in at the hotel in the Val Gardena area, followed by dinner and overnight.

Day 2 | June 20, 2027 | Mont Seuc

Elevation Gain: 450 m | Distance: 12 km

Breakfast at the hotel. Begin the hike from Mont Seuc and continue toward Rifugio Sassopiatto along the beautiful Friedrich August Weg. Along the route, enjoy panoramic views of the Fassa Dolomites, including the Sella-Pordoi Group, Padon, Marmolada and Catinaccio, as well as the Gardena Dolomites, with views toward Puez, Cir and the Odle Group. From Passo Sella, the group will be picked up by private van and transferred back to the hotel. The required cable car is not included and must be paid for locally.

Day 3 | June 21, 2027 | Funes Valley

Elevation Gain: 350 m | Distance: 10 km

Breakfast at the hotel. Depart for Val di Funes for a 10 km hike to Geisleralm, followed by a visit to the Santa Maddalena viewpoint. Val di Funes is a picturesque valley approximately 24 km long, lying beneath the majestic peaks of the Odle Group and extending toward the vineyards of the Isarco Valley. Often called the “Pearl of the Alps,” it is an ideal destination for travelers seeking nature, tranquility, and authentic Alpine scenery. After the hike, enjoy a short stop to admire the Church of San Giovanni in Ranui. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Day 4 | June 22, 2027 | Seceda

Elevation Gain: 500 m | Distance: 8–10 km

Breakfast at the hotel and check out. Depart for Seceda, reached by bus and cable car. Take the Col Raiser cable car for sweeping views over the valley before beginning the hike toward Seceda. From the summit, enjoy spectacular views across the Dolomites and the mountains of South Tyrol, stretching from Ortles to Vetta d'Italia and as far as the Brenta Dolomites and Adamello in Trentino. After the hike, transfer to the hotel in Val di Fassa for dinner and overnight. The required cable car is not included and must be paid for locally.

Day 5 | June 23, 2027 | Roda di Vael

Elevation Gain: 400 m | Distance: 8–9 km

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for a full-day excursion to Rifugio Roda di Vael, a high-altitude mountain refuge located approximately 2,300 metres above sea level. The hike offers breathtaking panoramic views across the Dolomites, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Enjoy time for lunch at the refuge; lunch is not included. Along the way, stop at Lake Carezza, a scenic alpine lake renowned for its emerald-green waters and views of the Latemar peaks. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Day 6 | June 24, 2027 | Passo Pordoi

Elevation Gain: 400 m | Distance: 8–13 km

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for Passo Pordoi, one of the most scenic mountain passes in the Dolomites. Located at 2,239 metres above sea level, between Val di Fassa in Trentino-Alto Adige and the Fodom Valley in Veneto, the pass lies between the Sella and Marmolada groups and offers unforgettable panoramic views. Return to Canazei, with free time to explore this attractive town known for traditional Alpine architecture and dramatic mountain scenery. Later, transfer to the hotel in the Cortina area. Dinner at the hotel and overnight.

Day 7 | June 25, 2027 | Tre Cime di Lavaredo

Elevation Gain: 450 m | Distance: 12 km

Breakfast at the hotel and early departure by bus to Rifugio Auronzo, a well-known mountain refuge at the foot of the legendary Tre Cime di Lavaredo. From here, enjoy a circular hike around these iconic peaks. Located on the border between the province of Belluno and the Three Peaks area of South Tyrol, Tre Cime di Lavaredo is among the most famous mountain landscapes in the world and one of the most recognizable symbols of the Dolomites. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Day 8 | June 26, 2027 | Lake Braies – Trento

Elevation Gain: 100 m | Distance: 4 km

Breakfast at the hotel and check out. Depart for Lake Braies, with a short stop en route at Lake Landro and a UNESCO panoramic viewpoint. Upon arrival at Lake Braies, enjoy a scenic walk around this iconic alpine lake. Often referred to as the “Pearl of the Dolomite Lakes,” Lake Braies sits at approximately 1,500 metres above sea level at the northern end of the Fanes-Senes-Braies Nature Park. Surrounded by dramatic peaks, it is renowned for turquoise waters and an idyllic setting at the end of the Braies Valley. Round-trip public shuttle transportation to the lake is included. Continue to Trento for hotel accommodation. Dinner is at leisure and not included.

Day 9 | June 27, 2027 | Trento / Departure

Leisure Morning in Trento

Breakfast at the hotel, followed by free time to explore Trento's historic center at your own pace. Suggested experiences include Castello del Buonconsiglio (Buonconsiglio Castle), Piazza Duomo (Cathedral Square), or a traditional Trentino meal paired with Trentodoc sparkling wine, one of Italy's notable mountain sparkling wines. Continue independently to Milan, Venice, or another destination. Train service is available from Trento toward Milan and Milan-area airports; travelers should select schedules appropriate to their onward travel plans.
