Definitions and Instructions

A. The term “document(s)” shall be deemed to include all writings and all other written, printed, recorded, audiotaped, filmed, electronically transmitted, videotaped and pictorial matter of any kind or nature whatsoever, however produced or reproduced in whatever form maintained, and all identical and non-identical (for whatever reason) copies of and prior drafts thereof, in the knowledge, possession custody or control of the party, his/her/its family, officers, directors, members, agents, attorneys, employees, heirs, predecessors, successors and assigns, regardless of where located and includes, but is not limited to correspondence, transcriptions, tapes, notes from recordings (whether or not transcribed), reports, applications, memoranda, studies, summaries, minutes, notes, agenda, bulletins, diaries, logs, announcements, instructions, charts, manuals, brochures, advertisements, schedules, appraisals, disclosures, computer data and printouts, telegrams, teletype, photographic matter, communications of any kind or nature whatsoever, and any other such documents and tangible things. In all cases where originals are not available, documents also means photocopies and other copies of such documents and any portions thereof.

B. The term “communication” includes, without limitation of its generality, statements, discussions, conversations, correspondence, speeches, meetings, remarks, questions, answers, panel discussions and symposia, whether written or oral from you or made to you. The term includes, without limitation of its generality, both communications and statements which are face-to-face and those which are transmitted by means of intercom, telephone, video conference, electronic media, telecopier, television, radio or the mails.

C. To the extent that you maintain that any of the following Requests for Production are objectionable, you must respond to any non-objectionable portion of a Request and you must comply with Rule 193.2 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure or such objection will be waived.

D. To the extent that you maintain that any of the following Requests for Production call for information subject to a claimed privilege, you must comply with Rule 193.3 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

E. You are required to make a complete response as required by Rule 193.1 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and to supplement and amend your responses as provided in Rule 193.5 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and a request for such supplementation and amendment is hereby made upon you.

F. "You," and "your" mean Crispina R. Meily a/k/a Rina Meily, and any of her assigns, agents, attorneys and/or representatives, and all other persons or entities acting on hers behalf.

G. "Oblon" refers to Defendant Robert Oblon, and any of his assigns, agents, attorneys and/or representatives, and all other persons or entities acting on his behalf.
