ATTENTION -Outstanding fees

To ensure that final grades will be released in a timely manner, please send in any outstanding school fees, lunch fees, or library fees before the last day of school. Also, please turn in any outstanding paperwork for next year as soon as possible so scholarship applications can be submitted to the state.

We Have Been Blessed!

The school has recently received a $1,000 donation from the Crestline Railroad Community Center. We will be purchasing replacement headphones, Chromebook adapters, and other classroom supplies, in addition to sponsoring our trip to Frank's next week. We are so grateful for their continued generosity.

Frank's Day!

Students and staff will walk to Frank's after lunch on Wednesday, May 20 for a sweet treat. The students look forward to this annual tradition and there is no need to send in any money – all expenses are paid!

FIELD DAY

Field Day will be held on the last day of school, May 21. We will walk to Kelly Park, leaving the school at 9:00 AM. Once there, we will have a morning of playing volleyball, baseball, and other organized activities.

We will have a cookout lunch provided by the school or students may pack a lunch if they prefer. Parents may join us for the morning or pick up their student(s) at 1:00 PM at the park. Then...summer vacation begins!
