Letter From the Pastor

Brothers and Sisters,

The Church calls this season after Christmas "Ordinary Time", not because it is boring or unimportant, but because it is ordered—measured, steady, and faithful. Ordinary Time is where most of our Christian life actually happens. There are no Christmas lights, no Easter lilies, no purple chasubles —just the steady rhythm of discipleship.

And that is precisely where holiness is formed.

Most of us will not experience dramatic conversions or heroic moments every day. Instead, God meets us in the ordinary:

- in showing up for work and Sunday Mass
- in caring for family,
- in choosing patience instead of anger,
- in praying even when we don't feel like it.

Jesus spent most of His life in what we would call "ordinary time." Thirty years of hidden life in Nazareth—working, praying, loving—before three years of public ministry. God Himself chose the ordinary as the place of salvation. Also, St. Thérèse of Lisieux was known for her "little way". In the "little way" she did ordinary things but with great love. For example, she would open the door for the person behind her entering the chapel (something ordinary) but with a great love in her heart.

As we continue this season, let us not rush past it or wish it away. Ordinary Time is where saints are made—quietly, steadily, one faithful choice at a time. May we learn to recognize God not only in the extraordinary moments of life, but in the daily ones where He most often waits for us. Like Jesus and like St. Thérèse, may we make the ordinary things of life ... extraordinary by doing the little things with great love!

In Christ,

Fr. Jeff

Mass Cancellation During Inclement Weather

The following policies are in effect for St. Joseph Parish when inclement weather threatens:

On mornings when there is a school Mass, if there is a 2-hour delay the Mass will be at 1:30 p.m. IF school is cancelled, the Mass is CANCELLED.

If school is cancelled on a day when Mass is in the evening, please listen to the radio or call the Parish Office to check to see if Mass is cancelled for that evening. Father Jeff will decide by Noon on those days.

Tune in to WVNO @ 106.1 FM or WMFD.com for updates

In all cases, please use common sense and your best judgment!
