Greetings St. Joseph parishioners,

I know it has been a while since I have announced any news about the south school roof. Last you probably heard was about a month ago when I announced at all the Masses that the insurance wasn't able to cover the fixing up of the roof and it's broken trusses.

In the meantime, I have been formulating a plan with the parish advisory councils on how to raise money for the school roof. We have every intention to fix up the roof and we have an exciting plan on how to raise the $365,000 for the project. At this time, I'm looking for volunteers who are interested in helping me apply for grants and reach out to local businesses. Also, and more importantly if you are interested in helping me make home visits and asking local people for donations please reach out to me at (jsmith@toledodiocese.org) I have EVERY intention to keep our school open for years to come!

P.S.

On another note, I received news that the Bishop will not be coming on the 5th of February for the 8:30am Confirmation Mass at Sacred Heart for our students. Rather he is sending his friend Msgr. Bill Kubacki. Although the Bishop won't be making it ... the same Holy Spirit will be descending on our students to be confirmed. Reminder: There is NO 7am Mass at St. Joe's that morning on Sunday February 5th... but we are offering a special 7pm Mass the night before (Saturday evening).

In Christ, Fr. Jeff
