Calamity Days

Unfortunately, this has been a difficult weather season. If we have another full calamity day, the make-up day will be Monday, March 9. This day is a scheduled teacher in-service day, but, if necessary, we will use it as an instructional day. Hopefully, this will not be the case! St. Joseph, pray for us!

We have also entered the "season of illness". According to the Health Department:

- Children should remain at home until they have been fever free for 24 hours with no fever reducing medication.
- Children should remain at home for 24 hours after that last time they have vomited.

Thank you for helping us keep sickness at bay at St. Joe's!

Please join us each Friday in Lent at 2:15 PM as we pray the Stations of the Cross.
