Letter From the Principal

Dear St. Joseph Families,

Another busy school year has ended. Despite all the calamity days earlier in the winter, we were able to end the school year without having to extend it. Highlights of the 2025-2026 school year can be found in my Annual Report which is an insert in today's bulletin. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions you may have.

We have begun preparing for the 2026-2027 school year and are optimistic about next year. Openings in Preschool through grade six are available and we continue to be an Ed Choice Scholarship provider, with all students eligible for a tuition scholarship. There are only a few spaces available in preschool and next year's preschool tuition is fully funded! Please spread the word to friends and family seeking a faith-filled and family-oriented school striving for academic excellence.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the SGO fund through the Diocese of Toledo and indicated that our school would be the recipient. Those funds will greatly help offset tuition expenses not covered by the Ed Choice Scholarship program.

As summer vacation begins, there is much work to be done over the next few months, but at a more relaxed pace. Summer school office hours for the month of June will be Monday-Thursday, 8:00-12:00. You may call the school and leave a voicemail after hours, as messages will be checked frequently.

Have a relaxing and blessed summer! St. Joseph pray for us!

In His Name,

Sue Sanders

New Staff Members

Although change can be challenging, we were blessed with a few new staff members this year to fill some big shoes! Last August we welcomed Mrs. Theresa Quail as our preschool teacher who did an amazing job with our youngest students. When we returned from Christmas break, Mrs. Jenna Collene, stepped smoothly into the role of school secretary, in addition to her Art and Music teaching responsibilities. Finally, we were extremely grateful for Mr. Dan Salvati who returned to the halls of St. Joe's mid-year to teach Physical Education and Computer classes. We are so thankful for all of our dedicated faculty and staff.

P.A.W.S.

Our parent/parish school group was active throughout the school year. They sponsored Trunk or Treat in our school parking lot, Village Scary Business, student Christmas ornament sale during a Donut Sunday, and Saint Joseph sweatshirt sales. The annual sponsored spaghetti dinner was unfortunately canceled due to weather, but mark your calendar for Sunday, August 16 for a back-to-school Pancake Breakfast. Many thanks to our dedicated committee members: Lindsey Mills, Bob and Tressa Reith, Andrea and Scott Burton, Morgan Frye, Anna Langdon, and Denise Woodard.

Community Involvement

Throughout the year, the school has been blessed with great community outreach support. Each month we welcomed lessons from Lowe-Volk and Crawford County Soil and Water District. Once a month our students walked to the Crestline Public Library for a presentation and Officer Martin visited the school to teach the D.A.R.E. program. Students also enjoyed several field trip outings: Crestline Historical Society, Morton School House, Honey Haven Farms, The Nutcracker Ballet, Renaissance Theater plays and an end of the year trip to Buckeye Imagination Museum and Richland Carousel Park.

This year we had six students chosen as winners at the Artapoolooza Art show: Kai Burge, Payton Hawley, Aie McKeever, Adaline Buton, Kenzley Edgington, Ayva Hawley. Oliver Langdon and Gio Mensi were chosen to represent the school at the Tri-County School Spelling Bee. A busy year indeed!

Assessment of Religious Knowledge

Due to statistically low enrollments, a breakdown by class is not consistently available. Overall, our students are strong in Morality and Virtue. As a school community we need to focus on Living Discipleship and Sacraments and Liturgy.

A Message from the Principal...

Dear St. Joseph Stakeholders,

St. Joseph School continues to be blessed with great students, dedicated faculty and staff, supportive parents, loyal benefactors and a caring parish family.

The building felt a bit odd this year without the presence of junior high students, but we are hoping to reinstate at least grade 7 in 2027-2028.

Many thanks to Fr. Jeff and the parish staff for their constant support and guidance, and to Mrs. Andrea Burton for her many years of faithful service. I am also grateful to our building and maintenance crew who keep our buildings and grounds in tip top shape.

Our enrollment looks steady for next year, and we are hopeful for a slight increase, but we would love to open our doors to more students. Your continued prayers for the school are much appreciated. We wish Ms. Fredritz our K/1 teacher well as she moves onto her next adventure.

I pray that God continues to bless you as you have blessed us.

St. Joseph, pray for us!

In His Name,

Sue Sanders

Recycling Weekend - Final Total

Dear Parishioners of Saint Joseph and Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Thank you to all who contributed to the recycling project a few weeks back. A lot of unneeded items were also removed from the parish campus.

Thank you especially those “eighty-year olds” who were able to help in the rain and the sun, and we even managed to have some fun.

We collected three large dumpsters and two truck loads of appliances, steel, aluminum, copper and brass. None would have possible without the extraordinary help of Innovative Recycling and Kurtzman Sanitation. Brian immediately brought us new dumpsters Saturday and Sunday when we were getting close to full.

The total amount for everything collected and donated is $1,285.15, far beyond our expectations!

Again, thank you, ~ The Building and Maintenance Team

Mark Your Calendars For Church Directory Pictures

At Sacred Heart: Tuesday, August 11 through Thursday, August 13

Our parish directory would not be complete without you, so please mark your calendars with these important dates. More details will be coming soon.

One Minute Meditations

St. Paulinus of Nola

St. Paulinus came from a wealthy Roman family, was a well-educated, renowned lawyer, and married into Spanish nobility. Everything changed with the death of his newborn son. St. Paulinus asked for Baptism then he and his wife sold their property and moved to Nola, Italy, where they devoted themselves to austerity and charitable works. St. Paulinus (by popular demand) became Bishop of Nola, governing wisely and generously. He died in 431, leaving behind many treatises, letters, and poems.

The love of the Sacred Heart

"The tender heart of God thought upon [you], loved [you], and procured for [you] a thousand means of salvation, as though there had been no other soul in the world... As the sun shines upon one place of the earth and enlightens it no less than if it shined on no other, so too has our Lord thought of and cared for all his dear children, as though his attention were wholly and entirely focused upon each of them." St. Francis de Sales

"It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me; and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me" (Galatian 2:20).

The Beatitudes: Christ's vision for the human heart

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus revealed the attitudes, priorities, and way of loving that shaped His life. These became the Beatitudes: interior dispositions that open our hearts to His grace. As we cooperate with that grace, our hearts are transformed to become more like His.

Poor in spirit: The poor in spirit recognize that heavenly treasures — peace, grace, love, friendship, and eternal life — matter far more than worldly success or possessions.

Mourning: Rather than distracting ourselves from pain, loneliness, or disappointment, we bring our wounded hearts honestly to God. Healing begins when we allow Him to comfort us.

Meek: Meekness is not weakness, but strength rooted in self-control and trust in God. When our security rests in God, we are less ruled by fear, anger, or the need to control everything around us.

Hungry and thirsty for righteousness: This is a deep longing to live in friendship with God and to grow in holiness each day.

Merciful: God loves us with tender, generous, and selfless love, and He calls us to extend that same mercy to others.

Pure in heart: Purity of heart means

"Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience, forbearing one another" (Colossians 3:12)

valuing what is true, holy, and good, while striving to live with sincerity and integrity.

Peacemaking: Peacemakers bring calm, clarity, and reconciliation to difficult situations. True peace comes when God is placed first.

Willing to suffer for Christ: Following Christ will sometimes bring opposition. Yet Jesus promises that those who persevere with courage and trust "will have a great reward in heaven" (Matthew 5:12).

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why does the Church need cardinals?

Cardinals are part of the governing structure of the Church and are best known for electing a new Pope during a conclave. They are bishops specially chosen — or "created" — by the Pope for this important role. Traditionally, cardinals were selected only from the clergy of Rome. Today, because the Church is worldwide, cardinals are chosen from dioceses across the globe. To preserve their historic connection to Rome, each cardinal is still assigned a titular Roman church. Cardinals wear scarlet vestments, including the red skullcap and biretta, symbolizing their willingness to defend and spread the Faith, even to the shedding of their blood.

Hope changes everything

Hope helps us desire Heaven and trust in God's promises. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches that hope "responds to the aspiration to happiness which God has placed in the heart of every man" (CCC, 1818). It strengthens us to persevere through difficulties and keeps our hearts fixed on God. Here are three ways to renew and strengthen hope:

Shift your focus: Do not allow past regrets, future fears, or present worries to dominate your thoughts. Read the daily Gospel before the news. When you catch yourself worrying or dwelling on negativity, intentionally redirect your mind toward God's promises. Keep encouraging Scripture verses — such as Romans 8:37 — visible on your phone, mirror, or coffee maker as reminders of hope throughout the day.

Fight temptation with the opposite virtue: In the spiritual life, virtues overcome vices. Counter doubt with acts of faith, complaints with gratitude, and comparison with encouragement and appreciation for others.

Become a source of hope: Build others up rather than focusing on faults. Frequently ask, "What can I do to improve this situation?" Christian hope is not blind optimism, but confidence in Christ, the One who is "Faithful and True" (Revelation 19:11).

from Scripture

Matthew 10:37-42, The priorities of discipleship

In this Gospel passage, Jesus speaks clearly about the demands of discipleship. At its heart is the question of priorities. For the early Christians, following Christ often meant risking imprisonment, persecution, or even death. To belong to Jesus required complete trust and surrender because only God is worthy of first place in our hearts and lives.

Faithful Catholic life still carries challenges today. Much of what Christ and His Church ask of us runs counter to the values of secular culture. Even apart from worldly pressures, each of us carries personal crosses — struggles, sacrifices, disappointments, and suffering. Yet Jesus never asks us to carry them alone. He invites us to follow Him and to walk beside Him through them.

The good news is that Jesus has already gone before us — from suffering to glory, from death to eternal life, and from sorrow to joy. Because of Him, our crosses are no longer meaningless. With His grace, we can choose each day to remain faithful, keep His commandments, and abide in His love. One day, in Heaven, we will see clearly that every sacrifice made for Christ was worth it.

Q & A Why do we honor Mary's Immaculate Heart?

In the month of June, the Church honors the Immaculate Heart of Mary because of her unique relationship with Jesus and her faithful cooperation in God's plan of salvation.

"Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord" (Luke 1:38). At the Annunciation, Mary freely consented to become the Mother of God's Son. From the moment "the Word became flesh" (John 1:14) in her womb, her Immaculate Heart was united completely to the Heart of Jesus in love, trust, and obedience.

"A sword will pierce your own soul" (Luke 2:35). Although Mary was free from sin, she was not spared suffering. Simeon's prophecy points to the deep sorrow she endured as she accompanied Jesus through His Passion and crucifixion.

Mary teaches us how to trust God even in suffering and uncertainty.

"My Immaculate Heart will triumph." These words, associated with Our Lady of Fatima, echo God's promise of victory over evil. As Mother and Queen, Mary shares uniquely in her Son's triumph. When we, too, say "yes" to God's grace, Christ's victory becomes our own.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 4 – St. Francis Caracciolo (1608). St. Francis was born in the Abruzzo region in Italy. He went on to found the Clerics Regular Minor with Venerable John Augustine Adorno. The Order was approved in 1588, and St. Francis became its superior for life.

June 7 – Solemnity of Corpus Christi. On this solemnity, we celebrate the transformation of the bread and wine into Jesus' Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist. This solemnity was established by Pope Urban IV in 1264 in response to the need for a Eucharistic feast day.

June 12 – Solemnity of the Sacred Heart (1856). St. Margaret Mary Alacoque received visions of Jesus, who urged her to spread public devotion to the Sacred Heart. The image of Jesus' Heart, pierced and enthroned in unquenchable flames, reminds us of His intense and eternal love for us.

June 15 – St. Germain of Pibrac (1601). Born to poor parents near Pibrac, France, St. Germaine had a deformed hand, suffered from sores on her neck, and was sickly from neglect and abuse. Despite her sufferings, she found comfort in God's presence. She was generous with the poor despite her own poverty. She forgave her stepmother who badly mistreated her. She is the patroness of abuse victims, people with disabilities, and shepherdesses.

Bread of Life: The Eucharist in Galilee

Christ's teaching about the Eucharist is the crescendo of Jesus' entire ministry: all his work in Galilee prepared for and pointed to the Eucharist. Join Dr. Tim Gray for an exciting five-part series about Jesus' teaching on the Eucharist.

Presence

Although the Eucharist appears to be simple bread and wine, it is actually the 'source and summit' of the Christian life. Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist explores the truth and beauty of Christ's real presence in the Eucharist, from its origins in Sacred Scripture, to its profound role in the life of the Church and her members. It is the crescendo of the entire story of salvation.

The Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart

Do you have a devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus? Deepen your devotion by listening to this discussion of sacred art pieces depicting the heart of Christ.
