Underwritten by
Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company

If you're like most people, you probably know someone who's needed long-term care services. Maybe you've been a caregiver yourself, and that has you wondering how you'll handle your own long-term care needs. Will your family take care of you? Will you be able to stay in your home? How will the need for care impact your retirement nest egg? We can help you find answers to the questions that keep you up at night. We'll start by listening to your concerns. We'll get to know you so we understand your specific situation. Then together, we'll find a long-term care solution that's right for you.

Connecting You to What Matters Most

A MutualCare® Custom Solution policy is designed to help you stay connected to the things that are most important to you by providing funds to help pay for the long-term care services you need.

Your Family

Balance the help you receive from family members with professional caregiving services.

Your Home

Stay at home as long as possible while getting the care you need.

Your Nest Egg

Protect a portion of your retirement nest egg from the cost of long-term care services.

How Long-Term Care Insurance Works

When the need for care first arises, you'll probably turn to family members or friends. However, your needs may go beyond their ability to help – whether physically or financially. That's where a long-term care insurance policy comes in. Long-term care insurance allows you to get the care you need in the setting that's right for you.

At Home

Many people prefer to remain at home as long as possible. Your policy provides benefits to help you get the care you need in the comfort of your own home.

In a Care Facility

Sometimes, more care is needed than can be provided at home. Should that happen, your policy also covers care you receive in an assisted living facility or nursing home.

How You Become Eligible for Benefits

You're eligible to receive benefits from your policy if you are chronically ill and a licensed health care practitioner submits a plan of care prescribing long-term care services. That means you must need help with at least two of the six activities of daily living (bathing, dressing, eating, transferring, toileting and continence) for at least 90 consecutive days. You're also eligible to receive policy benefits if you're certified to need continual supervision due to a severe cognitive impairment.

Your Policy's Waiting Period

Once you become eligible for benefits, your policy's elimination period begins. This is the waiting period before benefits are payable to you.

- The elimination period starts on the first day you are deemed to be chronically ill and you receive a covered service
- Once the elimination period has been satisfied, benefits for covered services are paid to you each month, up to the maximum monthly benefit you select
- As long as you remain eligible, benefits for covered services will be paid to you until your policy limit is reached

Your Benefit Payment Options

You have two options when it comes to receiving policy benefits – cash or reimbursement. You also have the flexibility to switch between payment options, which means you can select a cash benefit one month and reimbursement the next. Just keep in mind you can't receive both cash and reimbursement benefits at the same time.

Cash Benefit

Gives you the flexibility to pay for any service that supports your plan of care.

- The cash benefit pays 40 percent of the policy's home health care benefit, up to an initial maximum of $2,400 each month
- There's no elimination period to satisfy before receiving the cash benefit

Reimbursement Benefit

Reimburses you for actual long-term care expenses you incur.

- The reimbursement benefit pays up to the policy's maximum monthly benefit amount
- The policy's elimination period must be satisfied before reimbursement benefits begin

Note: Days in which you receive a cash benefit don't count toward satisfying the policy's elimination period for reimbursement benefits.

Customizing Your Policy

Your MutualCare® Custom Solution policy can be tailored to meet your needs and fit your budget. When determining how much coverage you may need, here are some things to consider:

- The cost of long-term care services in your area
- The amount you can afford to contribute to the cost of your care
- How much you'll need in benefits each month
- How long you think you may need long-term care services
- How long you're willing to wait before policy benefits begin
