

URSI UK Symposium 2025

Durham University, Durham DH1 3LE.
10 am – 5 pm on 13 March 2025

An event for early-career researchers

The URSI UK Symposium 2025 will be held at Durham University on Thursday 13 March 2025. The event will take place in two locations. From 10:00 to 14:00, it will be hosted in Room E102 of the Christopherson Building, Department of Engineering, Upper Mountjoy. From 14:00 to 17:00, it will move to the Calman Learning Centre. It is an opportunity for early-career radio scientists/engineers to present their work, receive feedback from the URSI UK Panel, network with their radio science peers across all URSI commissions, and obtain a valuable overview of the broader radio science scene. For more information about URSI UK, please visit www.ursi.org.uk.

Contributions are invited on topics covered by any of the ten URSI commissions (<https://www.ursi.org/homepage.php>). Abstracts should be submitted on one side of A4 using Arial 11-point font in Word and PDF formats by email to Professor Sana Salous (sana.salous@durham.ac.uk), Professor Tian Hong Loh (tian.loh@npl.co.uk), and Professor Yang Hao (y.hao@qmul.ac.uk) by 12.00 noon on Thursday 13 February 2025. Please include URSI-UK-Symposium-2025 in the subject heading of the email.

Papers will be refereed by the URSI UK Panel members and selected for oral or poster presentation. Acceptance of papers for oral or poster presentation will be notified by Thursday 20 February 2025. Presentations will be 15 minutes in duration including 5 minutes for questions/discussion.

The registration fee is £35.00. Durham University is sponsoring the lunch, and beverage. The URSI UK Panel will award prizes for the best oral paper and best poster paper.

Please register latest by 15:00 on Monday 3 March 2025 using this link:
