COOLER WEATHER!
Written by Stacey Hernandez

Hello!

We are certainly enjoying the cooler temps and so have the animals!

WHAT'S IN THIS MONTH'S ISSUE:

- New animals!
- Egg Sales
- Upcoming Events

Our October Tree line-

Let's watch the seasons change right here on the farm. We are starting to see the colors change already!

Animal Update

C1 Farms has DUCKS!

This past month we welcomed 2 Pekin Ducks!

We are having fun learning about these beauties! We believe that we have 1 male and 1 female.

The two have been inseparable and the cutest thing to watch! We don't know the ages but due to feather growth, they are young.

This breed tends to be an animal for meat and eggs, while we do not plan to raise these ducks for meat, we hope to get some eggs from at least one of them soon for all of you to enjoy!

These ducks were gifted to us and came from a local rescue as these two were looking for a forever home! We are happy C1 Farms can give them that loving place!

The egg laying season will soon start to slow down, so pick up your eggs while we still have stock on the farm!

Our eggs are $5.00 a dozen or if you return your egg carton get a doz for $4.00!

Upcoming Events

PRIVATE EVENTS ON THE FARM

Fall/Winter Season

Want a place to enjoy the change of weather?

Private events on the farm are welcomed! They can be made custom for you, from small groups, engagements, parties or family bonfire nights.
