SHERo Awards: Celebrating inspirational women and girls

Every day, there are women and girls in our community that identify a need or a problem and respond by taking action to try to make life better for their friends, family and neighbors. We believe that their commitment to serve others and their courage to try to make a difference deserves to be recognized. It is our hope that by honoring these every day SHERos we inspire even more of our women and girls to be confident in their abilities, pursue their passions and do good in the world.
