

DAFFODIL GAMAYON

a Las Vegas based hip hop teacher and choreographer. Her body of work spans over a decade. Not only as a dancer, but as an award-winning choreographer. She is a studio director and choreographer at Studio 702 Dance, while simultaneously contributing to work for various high school dance teams, community dance crews, and Las Vegas Events. Working with the dancers of tomorrow is a fervent passion of hers that does not only end in the studio, but breaches out to the various communities within Las Vegas. Ensuring that the dancers of tomorrow have opportunities not only within the studio realm, but within their own communities and in the entertainment industry. Her dedication to her students and her artistry is immeasurable. The energy she brings to her classroom makes learning dance fun, while continuously keeping her students engaged. Allowing for an overall enriching and memorable experience for all who cross her path.

SETH ROBINSON

Originally from Indiana is a graduate of Ball State University where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Dance. Since graduation Seth has been directing and teaching at TRIBE Dance, a traveling dance intensive he founded in 2011 for dancers looking for that extra push. In addition to TRIBE, Seth is also co-director of BALLET MATTERS, a ballet-focused in-studio intensive designed to facilitate maximum technical growth for dancers. These events travel to dance studios across the country for a weekend of intense training in an intimate setting with Seth & his diverse team of professional dance educators. After graduation, Seth moved to Chicago where he danced with Elements Contemporary Ballet, guested with Chicago Dance Crash, and trained extensively at Visceral Dance Center.

In 2015, Seth was hired as Faculty member to tour nationally with REVEL Dance Convention as well as The Streetz Dance Convention. Robinson is going into his 7th season with Streetz. Seth has had the opportunity to travel extensively throughout the United States dancing, teaching, and setting choreography for many pre-professional and competitive companies.

In 2019, Seth and his husband Jeff Wolfe opened THE HIVE, a Chicago based creative dance hub that offers drop-in based training for adults and youth. With over a decade of experience with traveling and choreographing for studios around the US, Seth started his own elite competitive team, THE COLONY. Pouring his passion for artistry and excellence through his experience and knowledge into young aspiring professionals is something that brings Seth great joy.

Most recently, Seth was featured as a dancer on Netflix's 'Soundtrack' (Episode 8, Season1- Choreographer:James Aslop) and performed for Kanye West during his Chicago Listening Party for DONDA at Soldier Field Stadium.

Seth is best known for his electrifying energy and caring personality.
