SMALL THINGS - BIG THINGS: Inspiring Stories of Everyday Grace

Larry, my wife and I listened with rapt attention to your reading. In my estimation, it was masterful. It is all the more so because of your pastoral heart. There can be no doubt that you are at the top of your profession! I'm ready to get going. I believe the Lord has provided the right man for my book.

Dr. Michael Milton - Author

BRAND UNDER FIRE: Crisis Management in the Digital Age

Larry nailed it. We needed a professional to bring some friendly authority to the book but that would appeal to a large international audience of corporate leaders. His voice was the appealing tone we were looking for. He delivered a great product and ahead of schedule. Highly recommend.

THE FIELD GUIDE TO MANAGE LIKE A PRO

As this was my first book, I was a bit overwhelmed by the narration process, but he helped me understand the entire process and I enjoyed working with him. He was very quick in completing the project and very professional, too. He was able to bring a real personality to my book, which can be difficult to do for a non-fiction business self-help book. Because of his delivery of the content, as I listened to the finished product and found myself nodding in agreement with what he was saying (even though this was the book I had written!). I've already begun referring other authors and publishers to him.
