

NOTES

1. JOBS VS SOCIAL MEDIA

We individuals used to focus on studying for jobs and income to sustain our living, but never anticipated that Social Media would emerge as a viable means of generating income through followers.

2. T20I VS ODI

It is possible that ODI cricket may be discontinued in the future. A notable concern is that there is minimal distinction between T20I and ODI formats, aside from the number of overs. While Test cricket can also be dull, it is interesting to note that there is a significant difference between Test and T20I formats. What are your thoughts on the future of ODI cricket?

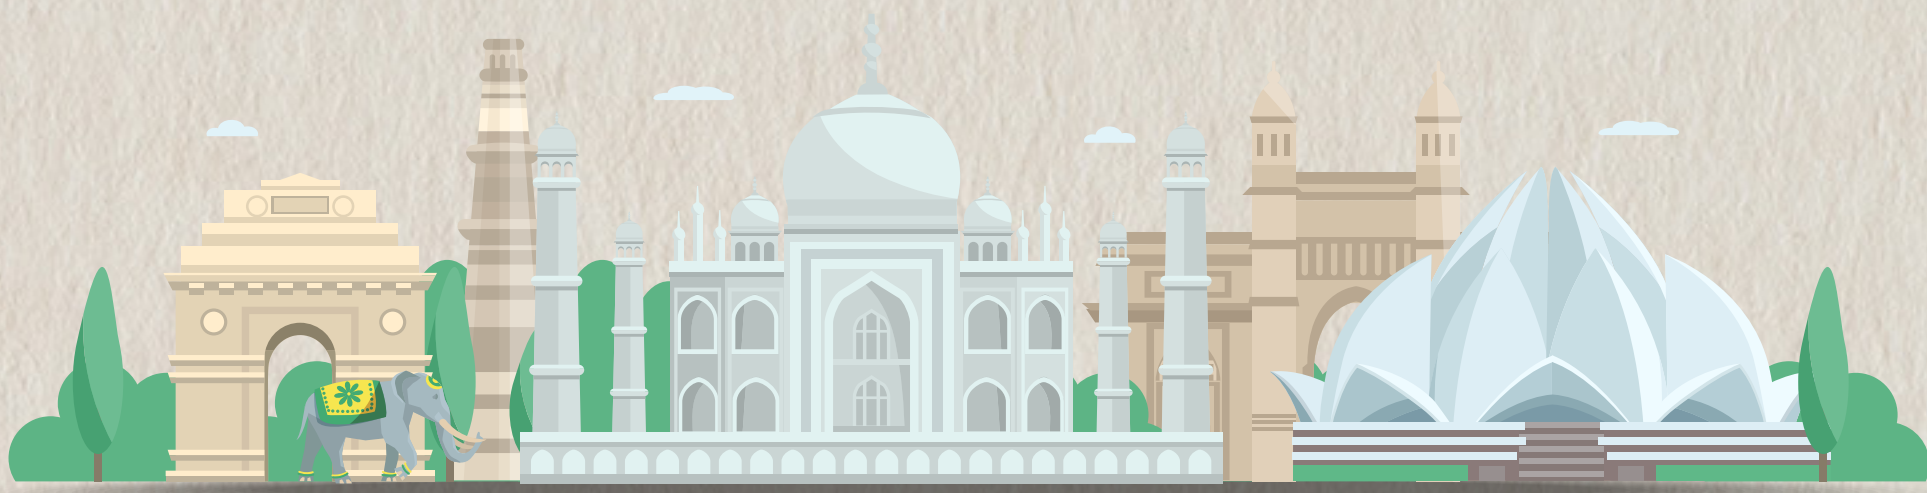

3. CANON VS NIKON

No matters how much difference between Canon and Nikon, no matters which type of camera you have and no matters how much good your camera is because 1st step and most important thing is how much good your photography skill is.

NOTES

4. WE PEOPLE AND INDIA

Its funny how we keep complaining about Indian politics, the system, administration and literally everything about India, but we forget to look inside ourself. Why not start with changing ourselves, and we would be surprised how the system would also change with us!

5. SMOKING IS INJURIOUS TO HEALTH

It's so good to display 'Smoking is injurious to Health' everywhere on tv but why or what the hell are actors and actresses smoking cigarette for? That's too strange.

5. CRICKET VS FOOTBALL

Suppose the first official T20I was played in 1877 instead of the first official International Test Match, would cricket have been as popular globally as football?
