

Our Mission

"So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart." Matthew 18: 35

We ask for blessings, but do not bless;
We're young in faith and deed.
We do not change when we confess,
Consumed by pride and greed.

We go to church and pray and praise
But harbor inward pain;
We say we live in sunny days,
But savor gloom and rain.

We chain ourselves to what has passed;
The Devil likes us there.
A sinking ship, tied to the mast,
Oh, sinner, please beware.

Christ calls to us above the storm
To come and share with him
A faith from love and grace that's born,
Christ's light when life is dim.

If we forgive and move in Light
We're freed from anger's curse;
The future blooms within our sight.
We sing Redemption's verse.

We seek God's love and mercy, too,
And thus, we are required
To share the same with others who
Ask us, in errors mired.

We cannot be Christ's followers
One hour on Sunday morning,
Then in revenge be wallowers,
Old injuries still mourning.

Our mission should not be replaced
With hurt that God's love smothers.
Let us respond to God's great grace
By sharing grace with others.

CHRIST CALLS US TO REACH OUT WITH LOVE AND SHARE GOD'S GRACE
