

The Lord has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy. Psalm 126:3

The children's giggles fill the air;
Christmas is soon coming.
The sound of carols everywhere
Is found in song and humming.
A few white flakes of snow are falling
On shrubs and walks and trees,
And church bells to the faithful calling
Ring out sweet melodies.

We know that life can bring us grief,
And throughout all the years
We search for solace and relief
To wipe away our tears.
All troubles seem to wane and fade
In expectation of
The Christ Child in the manger laid,
Embodiment of Love.

God came to Earth, Emmanuel,
To heal and serve and teach,
To calm our fears and worries quell,
Put Heaven in our reach.
Within each heart, beyond our cares,
Christ can all doubt destroy;
Let's spread the Good News everywhere
And let's be filled with joy! Patti Miller
