

Possibilities

"Nothing, you see, is impossible with God." Luke 1:37

Hope, joy, peace, and love can rule
In hearts and minds and lives.
Although the world seems dark and cruel
In Christ, each person thrives.
The angel Mary reassured
That she would bear a child,
And she believed the spoken word -
Brave, humbled, undefiled.

The darkness should not cause us angst
Nor give us fear or doubt;
Let's live each day with sincere thanks
For that's what faith's about:
To live each day in gratitude
To God, our Savior, King.
God's love no person will exclude,
To all salvation brings.

The Christmas bells ring out with joy
And hope for Jesus' birth.
In Bethlehem, that little boy
Brings peace and love to earth.
Like Mary, let us in God trust;
This miracle let's seize.
A Savior that is given to us
Brings possibilities! Patti Miller
