

The Call

"Follow me." John 1:43

The comfort of my living room
Calls out to me each day.
The warmth and calm dispel all gloom
And banish fears away.
Sometimes I wonder if such ease
Creates an apathy
That may in some ways God displease
Who calls to challenge me.

To feed the hungry, aid the poor,
Visit the sick and ill,
Comfort the dying, and so much more -
If I follow God's will.

Our Savior's calling and true mission:
The Gospel preach and serve.
Let's put aside our own ambition
And from Christ's call not swerve.

The prophet Samuel replied,
"I'm listening, dear Lord."
And Christ said, "Yes," and for us died,
So all could be restored.
Disciples followed willingly,
Left all in faithfulness,
And that same call to you and me
Demands that we say, "Yes!"
