

The Power of Yes

This time Jonah started off straight for Nineveh, obeying God's orders to the letter. Jonah 3:3

Like children we may hesitate
To follow God's commands.
We may excuses weak create
Avoiding reprimands.
We struggles with priorities
And even lose our way.
We often fail our Lord to please
When we do not obey.

Distracted by each selfish need
We do not make the choice
To follow Christ, although he pleads,
Compelling with his voice.
Like Jonah we may try to flee,
Be swallowed by desire;
In time if we will but agree,
Then miracles transpire.

"Come, follow me," our Savior asks,
And we must never swerve,
Accept the God-inspired tasks,
And witness, work, and serve.
No running or evasion of
The call of faithfulness.
Commit to Jesus Christ and love -
The power of saying, "Yes!"
