

Greene County

MAGAZINE

Eugene Jarrell Cemetery

GREENE COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

VOLUME 4 APRIL 1982-83
(pages 22)

GREENE COUNTY IN THE CIVIL WAR

Snow, Henry, enlisted January 10, 1864, Co. K, 4th Virginia Infantry, Walker's Brigade, Johnston's Division; wounded and captured at the Wilderness, May 5, 1864; held at Elmira, New York.

Snow, Richard, enlisted January 10, 1864, Co. K, 4th Virginia Infantry, Walker's Brigade, Johnston's Division; wounded May 5, 1864 at the Wilderness.

Thomas, George Stewart, enlisted May 8, 1863, Co. B, 4th Virginia Cavalry, Wickham's Brigade, Fitz Lee's Division; died March 1873.

Thomas, Reuben S., enlisted April 10, 1861, Co. A, 7th Virginia Infantry, Pickett's Division; promoted corporal; wounded July 3, 1863, at Gettysburg; April 2, 1865, at Sailors Creek; captured April 6, 1865 at Sailors Creek; held at Point Lookout; discharged July 28, 1865.

Via, John W., enlisted Aug. 9, 1861, Co. H, 57th Virginia Infantry, Terry's Brigade, Pickett's Division; captured April 1, 1865 at Five Forks; held at Point Lookout; discharged June 27, 1865.

Wilhoit, John N., enlisted April 17, 1861, Co. F, 13th Virginia Infantry, Pegram's Brigade, Early's Division; second sergeant; wounded Dec. 13, 1862, at Fredericksburg, and May 5, 1863 at Chancellorsville; captured October 19, 1863 at Cedar Run; held at Point Lookout; discharged June 19, 1865.

Breeden, John W., enlisted at Camp Randolph, April 2, 1863; a private of Company D, 34th. Regiment, Virginia Infantry, C.S.A.; wounded at Petersburg; Prisoner of War; paroled April 15, 1865 at Lynchburg, Va."<sup>2</sup>

-----
REFERENCE:

<sup>1</sup>Transcribed from pages 399 and 400 of Hardesty's Historical & Geographical Encyclopedia, 1884.

<sup>2</sup>Ibid.

EUGENE JARRELL CEMETERY

The Jarrell Cemetery is located on the Eugene Jarrell home place. It is about one mile off State Route 621 on the east side of South River in Greene County, Virginia. The size of the cemetery is about 14 x 16 ft. and is enclosed by a board fence. The cemetery contains five graves and is in good condition.

✓ Iris, infant daughter of W.P. and
Daisy Jarrell, 1915-1916

✓ Jarrell, Eugene S., 1849-1921

✓ Glen P. Jarrell, 1919-1920

✓ Jarrell, Martha C., 1849-1920

Harold Shelton, Jan. 12, 1939
son of J.S. and Mildred Moyer