GRACE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SUNDAY @ 11 A.M.

Letter from Pastor

"Be careful that you don't practice your religion in front of people to draw their attention"

Matthew 6:1 CEB

Greetings Grace Family,

As we begin March with Ash Wednesday and a season of Lent, I share these words from Matthew as encouragement to remember who Ash Wednesday and Lent is for. As "dust" may we remember the sacrifice of Christ and allow that reflection to shape what we refrain from in remembrance of Him. Matthew also discourages being "showy" during this season. The ashes on our forehead represents our outward expression to the world for one day. But it is our inner reflection of our hearts that displays our commitment to Christ all the days that follow.

Daylight savings happens on March 9th (don't be late to church – lol) and we look forward to hosting Dellabrook, Lloyd, and Trinity again for our Joint Worship Service on March 30th. We are asking everyone to sign up for our potluck and consider ways you can participate in our morning worship service. As always, let us keep one another in prayer and I thank God for our opportunities to serve Grace together!

Humbly Submitted,
Pastor Pam

DEFENSIVE BACK FOR THE ETSU BUCKS

KENDALL JAYLON WILLIAMS graduated December 13, 2024, from Carson-Newman University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise Science. Carson-Newman is a private Christian college located in Jeffersons City, Tennessee.

Kendall's parents are the late Ms. Keia Smith and Mr. Shelton Williams; he is the grandson of Ms. Patricia Burton, and the great-grandson of Mrs. Emma Shouse and the late William Shouse.

Kendall will be pursuing a post graduate program at East Tennessee State University in Johnson City, Tennessee that will give him the opportunity to utilize his remaining year of football eligibility as a Defensive Back for the ETSU Bucs and allow him to broaden his business knowledge, communication, and leadership skills, as well as relevant athletic wellness and training certifications in preparation for his ultimate goal of pursuing a coaching career and/or a professional athletic training position.
