

“Why Did This Happen To Me?”

Many times we ask to ourself - “Why did this happened to me?” .

It is not because God hates you but it's because God has a purpose for your life. God wants to lift you up.

John 9:1-3

God allows you to be weak and worn out, not because He wants you to be intimidated but to show His glory through you. To show if God is with you then who can be against you.

Genesis 45:5

We can see from Joseph's life that we can be either better or bitter. We see in Genesis that Joseph knows everything that happened in his life is for the glory of God. That's why he is the one who is comforting his brother despite of going through a lot in his life.

God allowed everything in his life in order to lift him up.

Job 42:10-17

We can see from Job's life how the Lord blessed him in the second half of his life Even More than before. God is going to renew you. There is Gain for every Pain.

Acts 16:28-34

- We can see when Paul and Silas were talking to the jailer saying don't kill yourself. To the same Jailer who put them in prison and shackle them up , Paul is comforting him.
- We can see instead of questioning Why this happened to us, They keep praising god even in the prison.
- God allowed this in Paul's life to display what He can do through him in prison.
- Sometimes life binds you in chains and you feel like a victim for doing good. But if you know GOD, you are going to behave differently.
- We can see that because of Paul and Silas , Jailer and his family got baptized.

Roman 8:28

“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose:

We can find our “Why did this happen to me ?” answer from above verse and it is because we are called according to his purpose and in all things it works for good.
