

BIG SCHOOL RUN CLASS OF 22

School report

Sharon Messam
 Thank you for this superbly organised event in such a beautiful location.
 An impromptu last minute entry, to run 26.2 miles (marathon) then go home... was not to be!
 The friendly marshals were so encouraging, helpful with lovely smiles. I was totally spoilt at the solo tent and the volunteers at the team tent wouldn't let me sneak by without giving a big cheer and a dance... so funny.
 The commentators and music were just brilliant.
 Also a massive shout out to the (Not) fast but furious team members... I hope I got to speak to all of you at some stage during the day. I thought you were a wonderful team and were all winners in my eyes ❤️
 Not forgetting the two man team, Hare & Tortoise, who allowed me to sit at their family table for the presentations awards 👍😄
 Being the overall winner was a bonus but spending the day with the Curly's 'family' was absolutely awesome!
 Thank you 🙏

Hey 🙌 Thank you for an absolutely amazing event yesterday. I almost want to keep it a closely guarded secret but I won't I'll spread the word!

Jodi Really enjoyed this event yesterday at Worksop college, organised by Curly's. 12 hours to run as many 5k laps as you can/want to. The route was a mix of trail and path, into the woods and around fields. I managed 12 laps, which was my target and was my longest ever run of 38.2 miles. Brilliant event with lots of support and friendly faces. Legs are a little sore today though 😊

I don't usually comment post races, but felt I had to on this occasion. I attended your Big School Run yesterday and despite the heat I loved it. The organisation of the event was outstanding. But without doubt my lasting memory will be the brilliant volunteers you had on the event. Can you please find a way of bottling up either Justine's or Aaron's enthusiasm and selling it you would truly make a fortune. In mentioning these two I in no way wish to undermine the others, I just happen to know their names. Thank you, it was a long time from booking to doing this event but it was well worth the wait.

Robert Atkinson 43.4 Miles Official .. 19th overall Solo / 13th Male Solo / 6th for Age .. Great event by @curlysatletes & pleased to wear @cadfcharity vest again .. a sprintish finish with the girls to cap off a great day .. Hot ☀️ throughout & odd dark hole I got into & easily out of 🧠❤️ .. it was just another enjoyable running day 🏃, #runnersofinstagram #running #wherenext #ultrarunning

Thanks for a great event!

Absolutely amazing day yesterday thank you so much for a great event and all the support and encouragement xx distance PB for me will be back (after the seaside ultra) xx

Ryan Birkitt My first ever solo endurance race which I quite enjoyed, after London marathon last year I was not sure what to go for but a great event and support 😊 and my first ever 30 mile run completed ✅

Catching up on #MedalMonday from our weekend at Curly's Big School Run

We had 12 hours to run as much, or as little as we wanted around the fabulous grounds of Worksop College with its varied terrain and great company along the way 😊 The aid stations and support were outstanding so I was quite happy with eleven laps with the rest of the time snacking, enjoying the BBQ and having a good old time with others!

Rich and I did our usual, stuck together (for all but lap two when I had an early comfort break!) and had one or two outfit changes 😊

We stayed in the dorms which was fun (camping looked fun too!) and rewarded ourselves with dinner and breakfast in the great hall which topped off a fabulous event, one I'd definitely recommend 🍷
