

Spectacled Eiders of the Far North at the Bering Sea

Carl J. Melichar • Artist

Carl Melichar, waterfowl painter, sporting dog artist, photographer, videographer and now author, has produced a book covering the mystical Spectacled Eider, at the Bering Sea.

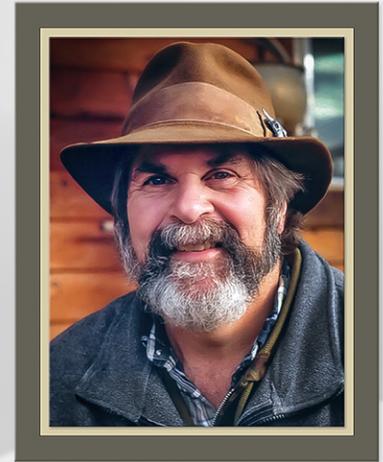

The book includes Carl and Richard Schiebel's sea duck hunting adventures to St. Lawrence Island in the '80's & 90's.

USFWS data showing the current status of the threatened Spectacled Eider, along with nesting & wintering maps.

There is world class artwork throughout the book, contributed by: Carl Melichar, Richard Schiebel, Les Kouba, Robert, Joe & James Hautman, Kevin Daniel and Bruce Miller. These Minnesota artists have generated millions of dollars benefiting a multitude of conservation organizations.

Also included in the book: Charles Hanson's North America Wildlife Museum, decoy carvings by Richard Schiebel, Marty Hanson & a Native Alaskan. Taxidermy by Jerry Froelich. Photography by David Stimac & Bill Diers

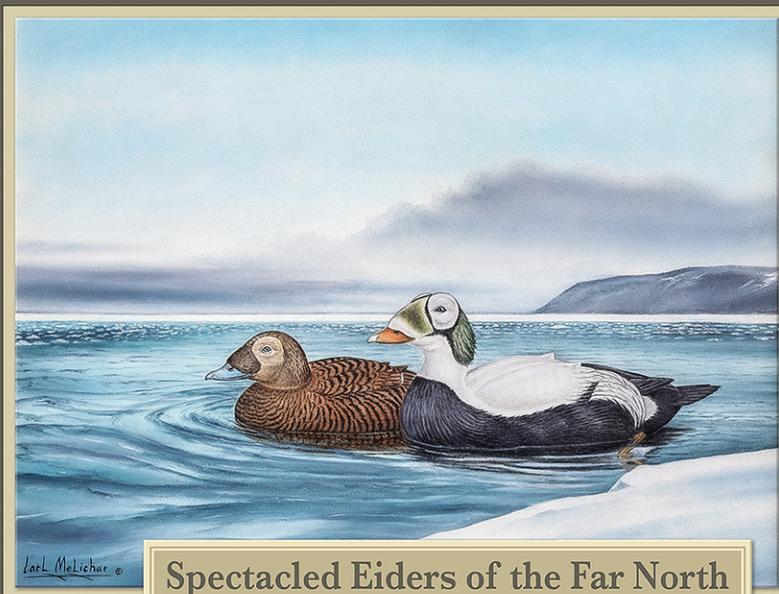

Make sure to visit Carl Melichar's Countryside Art Gallery website: www.countrysideartgallery.com
For Spectacled Eider book, merchandise and spectacled eider info visit: www.spectacledeider.com

24 Richard Schiebel's decoy © 4'87' Eider mural depicting Richard's 1991 Spectacled Eider hunt to St. Lawrence Island

27 Les Kouba • 1990 Federal Duck Stamp Entry • Les Kouba(r) with first cousin Louis Melichar(r), Carl's Father

Carl J. Melichar

Spectacled Eiders of the Far North at the Bering Sea

Spectacled Eider Decoy © Bass • Carved by Richard Schiebel • All decoy photos by ©Bill Diers Photography