

Test of Time

Never go back to a past from hell
Of a love half-assed

If the test of time couldn't stand to pass

Then a future forced,
will eventually shatter at the first blow, like cheap glass

You want a love full-assed
Where the test of time Could stand a fiberglass blast from the past and a weatherglass blow from the future

You want a bad ass
Not a jack ass
