

Bitter Cry

Your sweetness gives me that sugar high
But it's usually a mental lie

Your rudeness
gives me that bitter cry

With crystal clear tears
Flooding over my eyes
Turning into salty icicles
Flowing down my face
Tasting like salty popsicles

My body, you love to deface
So I mostly do the licking in private
Only to save face
