

I Am God

You can't hide from the divine

From head to toe
Only I know-
Your body's every mole

I know you 'whole'
Not in 'parts'

I know your 'soul'
Even your bipolar 'hearts'

The heart of your body
Of which, when sinning- you say sorry

The heart of your soul
Of which, when you ignore me- you feel a hole

The heart of your spirit
Of which, when you're feeling weak- I visit

Who are you? You are mine.

Who am I? I am yours.

I am God.
