

Sister Fights

At times-
We bring each other to tears
Or we want to shut-off our ears
Craziness, which causes sister fights

They're like magicians

They seem to always make My problems- both disappear and reappear

No matter what, we're very tight
We can feel each other's footsteps,
Pacing gently on the floor

Even late at night
With each other's fears
We're always there to go to war
