

Kaleidoscopic

I just can't cope
With your emotional abuse

While I feel it with a vibroscope,

You see it with a microscope
Others see it with a telescope
To hear it, ya'll need a stethoscope

You apologize
With a kaleidoscopic view

Just to renew
My longing hopes

Ironically, the hues are always blue
The promises you make, are never true
