

Action Figure

Go figures
Forcing your kids to be the adult
So you can act like the child

You think they only want from you-
An action figure?

NO-
They want from you-
A mother figure!

Beautiful moments captured in pictures!

They want to feel secure
From a mother's love
They're told, is supposed to be pure
Tight hugs when they experience failures!

When will you cease to punish them
For you own failures?

What they need, is your attention
But you don't understand

You're such a motherless... figure
