

Law Of Attraction

When we first met,
We had an exquisite sense of attraction
It was strong, yet beautifully silky

Some may have noticed
Our explosive reaction
Some may have made petty jokes,
To question our wild actions

Everything felt so odd and too risky

There's no regret-

To them, I'll respond...

I hope the sparks-
Scorch off that hefty jealousy
'cause y'all must've never experienced,
A chemical reaction
While in action
