

Beginning

Let's get lost
In our galactic emotions.

Where do we begin?

I've got some questions
That'll cause stardust explosions.

Will you let me kiss you?
I'd like a taste of your grin.

Will you let me touch you?
I'd like to caress your skin.

I want to take us
Into different dimensions.

I want to trace us
Till we connect, every single one
Of our bodies' - constellations.

Shall we begin?
