

A Friend In Alcohol

If alcohol were a human being
Would you still want to be friends

Knowing it bullies you
Into doing unforgivable things
The cognizant you- would never do

Knowing it makes of you- a fool and ties your hands to stupidity
Instead of making you look, cool

Knowing it intends to arouse,
Would you let this friend in your house
So, it could come in-between
You and your spouse
Or hurt your beloved children

If alcohol were a human being
Would you still love and trust it as much

Because human or not-
You should know
It tends to abuse, at its touch
