

My Last Goodbye

How dare you think-
That I'm the only one,
Who caused us harm

To think that it once,
Crossed your fucking mind-

Then crossed your fingers,
Right across your broken heart
and hoped to fucking die-

Believing I would ever love you in a lie
Or that I would use you till
I left you high and dry-
Is to believe you truly never gave
Your heart to mine

When all I ever did
Was crossed my fingers
Right across my loving heart
and hoped to fucking die-
Tightly in your arms

As I'd take a bullet for you in the sky
Before I'd ever let my eyes- see you cry
