

Blessed Be Today

In a today of isolation

Blessed be today

Because what's a tomorrow without a today?

Tomorrow is the day we pray for congregation
Tomorrow is the day we pray to return to our occupations to earn a decent wage

No day is ever guaranteed

Everyday we write our book of life and carefully turn a page

Everyday we subconsciously expect to make it to the old age

Everyday we try to be the best we can be
To land a blank space in the heavenly book of life

Blessed be today

Because there is no tomorrow without a today

Today, will one day be, just a distant memory
But tomorrow is always anew
