

Family Kingdom

My home is a cage
It drives me insane
House-wife and Mommy-life

How many times
Do I have to yell and cry

Before you realize
This isn't an animal kingdom or pigsty
It's a family kingdom of which, you can always rely

But you're always late
You leave everything trashed
You can't change a diaper to avoid a rash
From our portraits, you disappear during the flash

How many times
Do I have to yell and cry

Before you realize
You're lacking the energy to try
Man-hood and Daddy-hood
Even an animal kingdom gets both, sigh
