

Father-Grown

He's a man who can grow a luscious garden
Possesses a great- nurturing and growing hand

He's a man who safely shades your pool for a healthy tan

He's a fan of all your celebrity and the one who provides you with the band

To a love he has sworn
His loving home is a permanent amenity

In the love I was born
I call this homegrown

Yes, I am lucky
One of the few, who is father-grown
