

Love Dangles

Heaven has many angels
Earth does too

Two loves that entangle
Being pro-love is being pro-life

Love is free
One should never be asked to pay a fee

Heavenly angels are lucky
They never get to experience earthly pain

Earthly angels are lucky
They get showers of heavenly love through rain

In heaven love dangles off the tree of life

Never crudely drain the loving blood
Pumping through the living veins

Never love the heavenly dead,
More than the huggable living on terrain
