

Loving Crew

Blue skies in the view
In a weather not so cool

No room for the lonely blues
With the company of a loving crew
Hugs are warming- and kisses, affirming
Feasting together- stomachs are full

Butterfly wings invading the flowers
With lots of greens in the background
Bees are swarming the soda cans
Flies are fighting for leftovers
While a bird sings a soothing sound

As the sun sets- with blowing fans
The weather gets cooler

Precious moments with the loving crew
Leaves no room to fill with the blues
