

Magical Romanticism

Magical romanticism
is what you bring into my soul You leave no room for skepticism as you know my body's every mole

The magic in your touch slowly removing my polo when in our bed, we playfully roll Leaves me with no control Falling deeper in the hole of your romanticism role

My heart, that you carefully stole with your magical romanticism and our moments filled with witticism
Are all embedded in my soul
