

Make Amends

The time on earth- we spend
Is the time that God will lend

Perhaps the rules of life-for us he'll once or twice- bend

But walking on thin ice will soon break and our lives, someone or something will have to take

It's part of the circle of our life

So before your ice breaks, be sure to make amends
And enjoy the time on earth, you have left to spend